

"Golog to the Unsalted Sea."

The following item, under the above heading, clipped from the Syracuse (N. Y.) Evening Herald, while referring to one of Duluth's new business men, shows that the fame of the "Jumbo block" has traveled abroad already:

Mr. J. H. Winterfield, who has been manufacturing cigars in this city for a number of years, leaves for Duluth, Minn., on the 14th inst., where he will start a large cigar manufactory. He has a contract with the Chicago & St. Paul railroad to furnish their newsboys with cigars and periodicals. His establishment is to be placed in the Jumbo block, and will be styled "The Jumbo."
