

PERSONALS.

General Manager Winter, of the Omaha, spent Sunday in Bayfield.

Daniel Manning, Jr., son of ex-Secretary Manning, is at the St. Louis.

J. Hoppin, bookkeeper for S. S. Linton & Co., of Minneapolis, is representing the firm here on 'change during Cook's absence.

General Passenger Agent Teasdale, of the Royal route, is journeying westward over the N. P. road, with his family, on a much needed vacation.

John Babcock, cashier at I. Freimuth's, fell into an excavation on First avenue west, near Superior street, on Sunday, and was very badly bruised.

I. Freimuth, proprietor of the Metropolitan dry goods store, left for New York city and other eastern points Sunday. He will be gone about four weeks.

Davenport Fisher, of Milwaukee, will arrive Saturday and open a chemical laboratory and assay office. He took the degree of Ph. D. at Heidelberg in 1854 and has been professor of chemistry in the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis four years. He is a practical chemist, thoroughly learned in the best laboratories in this country and Europe, and is not unknown in scientific circles. His partner, Charles G. Allmendinger, comes from the chemical laboratory of the University of Michigan.

R. N. Marble, accompanied by his family, returned last evening, over the Royal route, from a Michigan visit. The family has been absent about four months.

Warner M. Bateman, who is stopping in the city, was manager for Sherman in the campaign of '80. He was also United States district attorney for southern Ohio under Hayes.

Philip Moessinger, Otto H. Fritz and George W. Palm, prominent Cincinnati business men and owners of Duluth realty are at the Hotel St. Louis and are seeing the city, with N. W. Frey of the new firm of Frey, Batchelor & Corwin, as cicerone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lowell, of Chicago, spent the day yesterday in Duluth with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Barkey. They left again on the steamer Peerless. Mr. Lowell is connected with a number of insurance companies who carry heavy risks in this city.