

PERSONALS.

G. G. Hartley and S. D. Allen came up on last night's limited.

Miss Looly Handy, of St. Paul, is in Duluth visiting Mrs. Henszey, of Beach street.

Messrs. Tuttle and Franklin, of the North American, left for St. Paul last evening.

Wm. Clemens, late proprietor of the Ontario House, Casselton, Dak., moves with his family to this city April 1.

W. A. Holgate, of Kane, Penn., is visiting his brother, A. H. Holgate. He has come here with the view of investing extensively in Duluth dirt.

Dr. Geo. I. V. Brown has returned from Boston, where he spent five weeks in purchasing machinery for the new factory. Some of it is already on the way.

J. W. McKee and family left yesterday for Denver, Col. Mr McKee had been connected with his brother in "The Market," where he became favorably known.

James H. James, of Ely, started yesterday for an extended trip East. He will visit Milwaukee, Chicago, New York, Boston and Pittsburg in business interests.

Among the additions to the Grand Forks delegation visiting in Duluth is W. H. Pringle, assistant cashier of the Second National bank, who arrived here yesterday.

A. E. Baerman, of New York, general agent for Collier's edition of Chambers' encyclopedia, is in the city. The best detailed information concerning the eastern blizzard he has had he received by mail upon arriving in Duluth.

Among the fifty young men who presented themselves before the state board of pharmacy at its quarterly meeting in St. Paul last week for examination to become licentiates in pharmacy, were numbered Hugh Cameron and Harry F. Chandler, of Duluth. Both were successful.

I. Freimuth, proprietor of the Metropolitan store, was in New York during the blizzard, and was on the elevated train that was wrecked. He was in the car that was dashed to pieces, in which twenty persons were wounded and one killed, but he escaped without a scar. Blizzards have ever been kindly disposed toward Duluthians.