

THE WEST END.

Annual Church Meeting.

The Second Baptist church at its annual meeting this week appointed L. D. Campbell, as clerk, Ford Labarr as treasurer, and elected Andrew Jackson as trustee. The church received the parsonage from the building committee, and set it apart as their minister's home. A unanimous vote of thanks was given Rev. Thos. Baldwin, the church acknowledging but that for his energy and credit the house could not have been built. Mr. Baldwin will be at home in his Sunday services tomorrow.

John Kent, of New York, is at the West End.

Dr. J. M. O. Tufts will return from his visit on Monday.

Captain Randall has returned from a pleasant visit to Cloquet.

A masquerade dance will be given at the West End in the near future.

A runaway, which did little damage, occurred on Michigan street yesterday.

The services will be conducted at all the churches at the usual hour tomorrow.

David Louis is the happy father of a bouncing daughter which arrived yesterday.

The rink was well filled yesterday, the weather permitting many ladies to be present.

The work on the Michigan House is assuming great proportions. It will be completed in two weeks' time.

J. B. Maling, the well known real estate dealer, called on all his West End friends yesterday and received congratulations.

Dr. Taylor is expected here from St. Paul, where he has been taking the examination preliminary to practicing in this state.

Nick Schrader, of Cass county, Dak., arrived at the West End. He is a well known Dakota capitalist and has ideas of locating here.

Stewart & Britts, Superior street bank will open on Monday. They have been busily engaged in placing everything in readiness during the week.

Many West End people attended "H. M. S. Pinafire" at West Superior last evening. Seventy-five tickets were taken up on the last trip of the Short Line.

The Chautauqua circle met last evening at Attorney Lord's office and rendered a very interesting program. The circle is increasing in membership, and its benefits are being realized by those who take part.

The funeral of S. H. Hill's four year old child, who died early yesterday morning of typhoid fever, will occur today at 1 o'clock at the residence on Third street, Rice's Point. Rev. Dr. Findley will conduct the ceremonies.

B. J. Summerville, who has been paying his brother, N. J. Summerville, a visit during the week, left for his home at Cloquet yesterday. He reports his business at Cloquet in a flourishing condition. The large stock of the Duluth firm will be increased.

The West End Social club, which is now being organized, will have about sixty members. Parties, dances and receptions will be given at regular intervals during the remainder of the winter and the coming summer. This will supply a long felt want among social loving individuals here.

A West End dramatic company will be organized during the coming week. There are several individuals who have had considerable experience as actors and possess talent for the stage. The company will be about twelve in number and will make their first appearance at the Grand during February.