

PERSONALS.

P. J. Richwine, the Tower hustler, is in the city.

C. M. Shaw and family move shortly to Tacoma.

J. J. Elliott, the well known contractor, was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Steenerson, of Zumbrota, has been added to the force in the State bank.

Miss Hattie Walker has been visiting her parents at Lake City for some days.

Mr. Cormack, of Ely, was in town yesterday purchasing supplies for his store.

Rev. Dr. Dunn has gone to the Vermilion range to get a subject for a sermon.

W. W. Tuller, lecturer at large of the North Star Shoe company, Minneapolis, is in the city.

Col. C. H. Graves has returned from the South, where Mrs. Graves will spend a few more weeks.

The register of the Merchants carries the names of John Miller and Joseph Kensler, Lake Michigan Transportation company.

F. A. Watkins writes that he expects to be at N. P. Junction the latter part of the week. He has been in New York attending law school lectures.

Frank Hibbing, who is heavily interested in Vermilion properties, but who has lived all along in Bessemer, will make Duluth his permanent home before May.

Dr. Cloding, late of Towanda, passed a rigid examination for twenty-eight hours in St. Paul last week. He will practice in Duluth forthwith, but has not yet found an office.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reichart will leave Duluth Friday or Saturday of this week for St. Paul. They will meet Mr. D. J. Reichart and family there and they will go together to Tacoma, where they will make their future home. They are all old residents of Duluth, and have been very successful in business here. They have many friends who wish them success in their new home.