

Nine members of the Summer Opera company are now here and others are expected today. Much inquiry is being made regarding the operas to be sung, etc., by which one can safely infer that much interest will be taken in the opera, and consequently large houses assured.

The annual meeting of the Duluth Gas & Water company will take place today. The members of the company expected to arrive today are R. L. Belknap, New York, S. M. Cary, R. H. C. Bennett, Geo. C. Squires, St. Paul.

The coopers who went out last week because the proprietor of the Imperial shop wanted to cut them down  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent per barrel, went back to work yesterday, after having secured what they desired—a return to the old wages.

Col. Tanner received a telegram yesterday stating that his wife was quite ill in Richmond, and unless a favorable report arrived later he will leave for the East this morning.

The Maud Granger company arrived yesterday and left in the afternoon for Ashland where they were billed to play last night. Tonight "Inherited" will be given at the Temple.

Traphagen & Fitzpatrick have awarded to P. L. Peterson the contract to build the row of fifteen houses on First street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth avenues east.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Jacob D. Zien and Matilda Metzger.

Three births and one death were reported at the health office yesterday.

Maude Grange in "Inherited" tonight at Temple Theatre.

The Transfer Co. are having maps of right of way prepared.

A small $100 building permit was the only one issued yesterday.