

Superior Siftings.

Judge Steele was free from his usual cares yesterday. Morris Samuelson, a too pugilistic Hebrew, was arrested for doing great personal damage to the lady of one Nathan Marcus. He was, however, discharged, as a clear case of assault could not be made out. Julius Gaskell was charged with being a vagrant, but was released on his promise to leave the city at once.

J. G. Anderson, foreman of the large works, was released from jail on $2,000 bonds, and his examination for the shooting of Silverson will come off at 10 a. m. July 17.

John Copeland, who has charge of the erecting of the Tower avenue crossing gates, expects to have them in operation Monday morning.

The Superior and the Two Harbors clubs will meet today at the driving park grounds.

Ten new tenement houses are to be erected on West Tenth street.

William Pierce is numbering the houses on the point.
