

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Northwestern is the only company which has, in recent years, printed tables of current cash dividends for the information of the public.

J. D. MILLS, State Agent.

W. E. PARSONS,

Special Agent for Northwestern.

Ad. Hunter is the proud father of a daughter, who arrived upon the scene Wednesday night.

Men are being imported from the twin cities to work on the sewers now in course of construction here.

The autumn social which was to have been given by the M. E. church society yesterday evening was postponed for one week.

Collector Nelson goes home this morning and will return in time to be present at the trial of the Chinese cases next week.

Wm. Chilcott will start a restaurant hotel on the European plan in the vacant Hotel Minnesota building in East Grand Forks in a few days.

After a very prosperous season Dinie Bros. shut down their brick works yesterday. They manufactured about four million bricks during the season.

Rev. H. R. Miller of Emerado, was a welcome caller at the HERALD office yesterday. Mr. Miller was fortunate in getting part of his threshing done before the rain.

Johnnie Orr states that not over one-fourth of the crop in the section north of Larimore has been threshed or stacked. The amount of stacking done is not worth speaking of.

A lively party of thirty or forty of the young friends of Miss Lulu Gotzlin, surprised her last night. The evening was passed away in dancing, music, games, etc. The young folks enjoyed the occasion hugely.

The Yon Yonson company has some unique advertising matter. One of the devices is a quarter sheet card with the inscription printed in bright red letters: "The latest—Yon Yonson cocktails will drive away that tired feeling." Yon is certainly a good antidote for weariness.

While we all watch and pray, figuratively speaking, for fair weather next week, the time of our race meeting, Fargo has our sympathy on account of the overdose of water they are receiving this week. The heavens are weeping entirely too copiously for successful horse racing.

Doheny & Lyons are loading five car loads of flour for Montana. They have to employ teams to haul it to the Great Northern yards at a considerable cost of time and money. The question again arises, why is not a Y put in to connect the G. N. and N. P. railway here? Echo answers, why?

Wm. D. Colby, of Atkinson, Ill., brother-in-law of H. P. Rucker, and who has made frequent visits to Grand Forks, met with a serious accident last week by falling from a load of lumber, which will lay him up for some time. Mr. Colby's Grand Forks friends wish him a speedy recovery.

E. S. Kneeland of Hillsboro, was showing some fine samples of celery raised by him this year. Jamestown has demonstrated that the finest quality of this vegetable can be raised in that vicinity and Mr. Kneeland's samples are fully as nice. The Kalamazoo region must look alive or North Dakota will head them off in the celery market.

J. C. Orr, of Orr, was in the city yesterday. He states that H. H. Day, who dropped dead while working with his threshing machine a few days ago, was apparently in perfect health. He had just got up to take his turn feeding when he fell backwards, but was caught by one of the band cutters. He was dead before he could be assisted to the ground.

The sun never sets on the circulation of the HERALD. It extends from Russia to China. Mr. E. H. Smith of the firm of Smith & Newton, sends it frequently to his daughter, who is the wife of Rev. W. H. Mr. Sattler is a brother-in-law of Mr. Freimuth and his wife was once Miss Minnie Maloney, formerly of this city. The house in Duluth is one of the leading dry goods concerns of the west, and it is their intention to put in a stock here that will merit the patronage of the people of Grand Forks and vicinity.
