

The Unitarian church will give a picnic at Ford cu Lac today.

Miss May Morris, of St. Paul, is in the city on a visit to her sister, Mrs Dr Day.

At the public installation of the Zenith City lodge, held at the West End Tuesday night, Henry Heideman was made N. E., N. O. Nelson, V. G., N. L. Summerfield, treasurer, H. McMan, secretary, Mr Williams, conductor. After the installation there was a program of music, address by F. H. White, the installing officer, refreshments and dancing.

On the evening of Tuesday, July 21, W. Moore, of the grain firm of Spencer, Moore & Co., will be united in marriage with Miss Jessie Tyler. Miss Tyler is well known in the city as one of Duluth's most popular young society ladies. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs E. A. Tyler. The ceremony will take place at half past seven o'clock at the First Methodist church.

A party party of young people took the Northern Pacific train for St. Louis yesterday and spent a very pleasant day at the new Hotel St. Louis. Among the party were Mrs Chas F. Taylor Mrs W. Brice, Miss Brice, of Duluth, Miss Merwin, of New Haven, Miss Upham and Miss Davis, of Philadelphia, Messrs Frank M. Zeller and A. G. Brice, of Duluth.

The Pathfinders.

The Jolly Pathfinders at the Temple last evening, discovered a trail that led straight as the crow flies to the risibilities of the large audience that witnessed their performances. C. H. Sweet, R. I. K. Wood and J. N. Heatfrow, in their respective parts, were entertaining. Tiny Miss Ruby, a vivacious tot of a girl, was quite clever and enjoyable by reason of her entire naturalness. Persons visiting the Temple this week with the expectation of witnessing a dollar show for fifty cents will doubtless be disappointed, but the patrons of cheap entertainments can rely upon receiving the worth of their money. The management announces a pleasing program for this evening's bill.

Hard Times Coming.

General disquiet in command
No trust, but distrust
Nothing moving but stagnation
Look out for the worst.

These warnings, applicable alike to countries and the condition of our own bodies. When there is "nothing moving but stagnation" in the different functions of the body, and they fail to do the work designed for them, when colds, catarrh, or bronchitis hang on with a death like grip, then it is that "hard times" are coming unless you act wise and get Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and restore your health, the grandest capital a man can have. This is a sure cure for throat and lung diseases, and especially consumption, if taken in time.
