The last Week of Lent Mostly Occupied With Preparations for Easter.

THE PEOPLES CONCERT

The Round Table Discusses Lowell—Balzac at the Unity Club Tomorrow Evening.

The past week has been chiefly devoted by society people to preparations for the Easter holidays, though several interesting events have taken place. The people's concert at the Bethel last Monday evening drew a large audience and was quite a musical success. The program was an excellent one. The choruses by Mesdames J. Loman, G. G. Hartley, S. Stocker, F. C. Bowman and Misses Mattie Rice, Susie Stearns and Lucy Cullyford were especially fine. The baritone solos by F. L. Lammers were magnificent and he undoubtedly has as fine a male voice as there is in Duluth. Miss Lucille Wiggin's solo, as well as Miss Lolo Montgomery's, were also greatly appreciated. Sidney Brown's violin solo received great applause.

"Lowell" was the subject at the Round Table meeting last Monday evening. An essay on Lowell was read by Miss Haire and Miss Kitchell read two selections from his works. A very bright paper on "Lowell as an Essayist" was read by Miss Labby and ended the program. Coffee was served by the ladies of the Hardy school after the literary exercises.

The Unity club meets tomorrow evening and will discuss Balzac. This most interesting of French novelists, a realist and a spiritualist will afford an exceptional subject for discussion. Edward Fuller will offer a favorable criticism of Balzac while J. F. Cargill will dispute the merits of the author. The exercises commence at 7.30 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Laura W. Foster and Mr. Frank Selleck was celebrated last Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hammond. Mrs. Hammond is a sister of the bride, and her father, Col. E. W. Foster of Greenwood, S. D., was present. Only a few friends of the family were invited. Rev. E. M. Noyes performed the ceremony. After the marriage the happy couple left for Owatonna, their future home.

At the meeting of the Saturday club yesterday afternoon, Mendelssohn and Schumann were the composers who were studied. Mrs. Peeler read a paper on Schumann and Mrs. Moore one on Mendelssohn. Several piano solos from these famous musicians were also given.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Diever and Mr. Samuel Gillespie was celebrated at the residence of the bride's sister, M. J. Laughton, 2220 West Michigan street, last Wednesday evening.

An experience social was given Friday at the First Methodist church by the Epworth League. A program was given and refreshments were served.

Miss Florence Silberstein entertained a company of young friends last Tuesday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Lida Carpenter of Chicago. Games and dancing entertained the young people and delicious refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid society of Endon Baptist church met last Wednesday with Mrs. F. B. Barrows, East Third street.

The Ladies' society of the First Baptist church was entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Hubbard of East Sixth street.

The second of the Assembly club balls is to be given Tuesday evening at the Spalding, and may be said to be the beginning of the after Easter gayety.

The Cliff Dwellers give a social hop at Temple hall on Wednesday evening.

Company A gives its first annual ball Tuesday evening at Temple hall.

Miss May Gregory, one of the public school teachers at Madison, Wis., is visiting her mother, Mrs. T. L. Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pierce and wife were visiting friends here last week.
