

BREVITIES.

Dr Schiffman pulls teeth without pain

G. A. Seipel, job printing, 15 Second avenue west. Telephone 336.

"Gill's Best" flour, the home manufacture of Duluth, is the best in the market

A concert will be given at the pavilion on Sunday afternoon.

The stock exchange will vote upon its amended by-laws at a meeting to be held today

I will buy first class paper, running one year or less, at reasonable rates. S. M. Chandler, 401 Palladio building.

Elegant offices in the Houghton & Gray building for rent by Stryker, Manley & Buck.

A meeting of the directors of the Duluth Boat Club will be held at 2:30 this afternoon in the board of trade rooms.

The Short line trains on the Duluth & Iron Range between Duluth and Lester Park will be discontinued after today.

The second series of popular music classes, under the direction of Prof. Myers, will be begun on Monday evening.

Dr. McCormick left yesterday for the South, where he will join his family. He will be away from the city about ten days

H. D. Stevens has been appointed weighmaster for the Western Weighing association for the St. Paul & Duluth scales at Carlton.

Jules Mayer and W. F. Hatley will play a championship billiard match in Superior this evening.

The Omaha train from Chicago came in one hour and a half late yesterday morning. It was delayed at Eau Claire by a breakdown in the engine.

At the meeting of the alumni association of Red Wing seminary John Ruetgard of Duluth was elected a member of the executive committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Chapman gave a delightful little dinner last night for a few of their friends at the Spalding. Covers were laid for fifteen.

The one month old son of Joseph D. Sattler of No. 113 Second avenue east died yesterday morning. The funeral occurs today from the pro-cathedral.

The Teachers association meeting now being held in Superior is proving very successful. About 250 teachers are in attendance and the programs are of decided interest

G. G. Barnum has been chosen managing director of the board of trade. He will act as the executive of the board in the absence of the president and vice president