

BREVITIES.

C. H. Parker, the alleged waiter from St. Paul, who was arrested Thursday night for stealing a pair of shoes from the store front of Joseph Oreckovsky, was found guilty of petit larceny yesterday in municipal court and sent to the county jail for 20 days.

The Christian Endeavor social at the First Presbyterian church was attended by about eighty young people last evening. The entertainment committee had arranged several clever little schemes for the evening's diversion. Miss Tupper and Mr. Norton were the soloists of the evening, and were heartily encored. *
