

WANT WORK.

TWO LOGGERS IN THE ST. PAUL & DULUTH YARDS ALLOWED TO GO IN SEARCH OF IT.

In the municipal court yesterday suspended sentences were given two young fellows who were found in the St. Paul & Duluth yards. They were respectable looking fellows and claim they are in search of work.

Moses Noskovsky was arraigned on a charge of stealing $20 from C. W. Cate while repairing the latter's trousers. He plead not guilty and his trial was set for this afternoon.

C. M. Klug, who is alleged to have tapped the till in the saloon of Hellman & Hays, will have a hearing this morning.