

THE CITY.

BREVITIES.

See Hambidge's double page painting, "Beauty and Innocence," it Truth tomorrow.

John F. Carlson yesterday renounced all allegiance to the king of Sweden for citizenship in the United States.

The remains of Thomas Watcher will be buried today from his late residence at 514 Lave ave north.

Births reported yesterday were to William E. and Minnie Close, a girl; to George E. and Mary Messier, a boy.

Clan Stewart order Scottish Clans has decided to celebrate Burns' birthday, Jan. 25, in a manner excelling all previous efforts.

Next Tuesday Capt. and Mrs. S. M. Pelton, 813 West Fourth street, will celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. L. J. Tanssig writes from Bermuda that Mrs. Dickerman, who was taken down with the typhoid there while on her wedding trip, is recovering.

N. Slonim was charged before Judge Boyle with stealing a bale of sacks from the Cutler & Gilbert warehouse. He gave bail and his trial was set for January 20.

A burglary was reported to the police as, having been committed at 129 Tenth avenue east. The thieves obtained entrance to the basement, and making their way upwards into the store, stole about $15 out of the till.

In the office of the federal court yesterday, John Niemi and Matti Lunski, natives of Finland and subjects of the czar of Russia, declared their intentions of becoming citizens of the United States.

Frank Maginnis underwent an operation for appendicitis at West Point about 10 days ago. His father, C. P. Maginnis is in receipt of a telegram from the military academy surgeon assuring him there was no danger.

The contract for the superstructure of the new brewery was let yesterday to William Lavanway. The building will be constructed of Gunnis' West Duluth brick, and Fen du Lac Sandstone.

Pat M. Tully, one of the best looking police officers in Duluth, quietly slipped down to St. Paul and last Tuesday was married to Miss Molly E. McCarthy of that city. After the ceremony they at once came to Duluth and took up their abode at 221 West Fifth street.

The following officers have been elected by the local Tailors' Union No. 67: President, Gust Anderson; vice president, O Lindberg; recording secretary, A. Nelson; financial secretary, A. Jackson; treasurer, T. Martell; trustee, P. Sand.

The Knox Lumber Company has sold 3,000,000 feet of high grade white pine stock to Geo. W. Stevens for Arthur Hill & Co., of Saginaw, Mich. The purchase was made on grades and will be shipped to Buffalo via Two Harbors as soon as navigation opens.

A transcript from the state court of Crow Wing county in the case of Marietta A. Whitely vs. Harry J. Jaquith, Timothy Brown and the city of Brainerd was filed in the office of the federal court yesterday. This case is due to litigation over a water power at Brainerd.