

LAKE BREEZES.

Smoke "Gerona" cigar. H. O. Swain.

If Kelly cleaned your clothes, they are clean.

"The Duty of the Hour" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered at Odd Fellows' hall this morning by Rev. Dr. Norden of Chicago.

Delegations from this city will go to Sandstone on Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Duluth Presbytery.

Richard Johnson and Hilda Erickson have taken out a marriage license.

There will be organized this afternoon, at Odd Fellows' hall, a Jewish lodge of I. O. B. B.

Mrs Kent's dancing class opened at Masonic dancing hall yesterday afternoon. About forty children attended. The grand march at the close was very pretty, and was heartily enjoyed by the children.

Accidents will happen. Good thing to be secured like those whose letters appear on page 3.

The monthly report of the clerk of the municipal court shows the amount of fines, fees and forfeitures collected for the month of September to be $1,120.43.

One death was reported at the health office yesterday, that of Nathan J. Mal-lar, aged 30 years, from an abscess in the stomach.

The board of fire commissioners will meet at the city hall on Monday, at 10 a. m., the usual monthly meeting having been adjourned to that date.

In the police court yesterday James Mul-lanthy was bound over to the grand jury for stealing a scarfpin from Frank Steind-le, and two drunks went up for ten days each.

Andy O'Brien, who has lately been a cook on board of the Inman tug Pathfind-er, was taken to St. Mary's hospital yes-terday. He was suffering from an attack of temporary dementia.

Mrs. R. L. West of Duluth Heights gave an autumn tea Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. T. J. Barrows, who will leave soon for Florida. It was a very enjoyable occasion, and many mutual friends were present.

A son has been born to A. F. and Kate W. Swanstrom of 2118 West First street.

The epileptic seizure that overtook Chas. Collins of 113½ East Fourth street, in a street car on Friday, proved fatal to him. His funeral will take place on Monday and the remains will be interred at Calvary cemetery.

Hugh McDonald of Aitkin died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday of acute Bright's disease. His remains will be taken to his home at Aitkin.

The members of the park commission, accompanied by ex-Alderman Cox, escorted Senator Culken of Wright county over the park system of the city yesterday, and wound up their trip with a visit to the county fair, where they watched the horses go round for a few heats.
