

BRITH ABRAHAM'S SPREAD

The Jewish Society Celebrates Its 10th Anniversary.

The tenth anniversary of Minneapolis lodge, No. 43, order of Brith Abraham, was celebrated last evening at its hall, Fourth street and Sixth avenue N. Chief Rabbi Yaffe reviewed the work of Judaism and the growth of its fraternal and religious organization. Ex-President Gould reviewed the history of the order and of lodge 43, touching upon its benevolent and endowment features. Vice President Max Halk and A. N. Berman of Flour City lodge, No. 119, O. B. A., made a few remarks. After the services the 40 present assembled in the dining-room where a sumptuous banquet was enjoyed. During the feasting President J. Gittleson responded to the toast, "The Growth of the Organization." A musical and literary program followed.
