

ISAAC IS GUILTY.

Mr. Polinsky is Convicted of Assaulting Mrs. Goldstein.

Isaac Polinsky, the gentleman who ran amuck June 8 and assaulted a colony on the hill, was tried in the municipal court yesterday on the first of the four complaints which have been made against him. The court room was well filled with spectators, including the victims and their friends and families. Polinsky was represented by R. P. Edson, while Assistant City Attorney Holmes conducted the prosecution. After being out all the afternoon the jury returned a verdict finding Isaac guilty of having assaulted Mrs. Goldstein. The drawing of a jury in the second case was in progress when the court adjourned. The motive ascribed for the wholesale assault is that Polinsky was not invited to a party given by the Goldsteins. He is a peddler and small of stature.
