

THREE BOYS MISSING.

"Mascot" Leads Two Youthful Admirers Astray.

About 3 o'clock this morning Thomas J. Tvedt, a clerk residing at 625 West Superior street, reported to the police that his two sons had been missing since midnight and when last seen were accompanied by Billy Oreckovsky, the little newsboy known as the "Mascot," Oreckovsky is about 12 years old and the other boys are about the same age. The newsboy is employed at the Pavillon in the living pictures. Last night the Tvedt boys attended the show and after the performance all came down the hill on the last incline car. They were seen about 12:30 by Officer George Drannen walking towards the docks on Seventh avenue. Nothing further had been heard from the boys at 4 o'clock and Mrs. Tvedt was nearly prostrated by her anxiety for the safety of her sons.
