

BREVITIES.

Smoke Tom Dinham cigar, 21 W. Sup. st.
Smoke "Gerona" cigar. H. O. Swain.
Dr. S. C. McCormick has removed his office from the Torrey block to the Providence building.

See the grey wheels, the beautiful "Mesaba," at 195 Chamber of Commerce, or at the factory, 411 West Michigan street. Paddock Mfg. Co.

George A. Parker, engineer at J. B. and G. T. Stevens' mill, met with an accident yesterday, his thumb being jammed in the machinery. Dr. Magle dressed the wounded member.

The Duluth Central Y. W. C. T. U. invites the friends of Miss Louise E. Hollister to attend a reception given in her honor, Friday evening, July 17, from 8 to 10 o'clock, in the parlors of the First M. E. church.

The cheapest and best clothes cleaning is done by Kelly of the Lyceum Cleaning and Dyeing company. Hats cleaned, dyed and reblocked latest styles.

The following deaths were reported yesterday to the health department: H. Johnson, age 1 month, son of John and Annie Johnson, 1113 Rice's avenue, gastro-enteritis; Elvira T., infant daughter of John and Hilda Tengblad, 1322 West Michigan street, capillary bronchitis; Anton S. Sneve, age 36 years, 514 Nineteen and One-Half avenue west, pneumonia; Myrtle May Warner, age 8 months, daughter of E. W. and Jennie Warner, 7 West Third street, cholera infantum; Aloisa Koneczny, infant daughter of A. and Agnes Koneczny, 205 West Fourth street.

The birth of a son to Joseph and Stella Ettelson, at 312 St. Croix avenue, was reported yesterday.

Francis H. Barnard, jr., of this city, who has been studying at the dental school of Harvard university, has graduated and received his diploma. For the present he is practicing in the office of one of the professors in Boston, and will probably locate there permanently.

Jacob Johnson, an employe of the Iron River Sandstone company, was brought down from Iron River yesterday on a tug and taken to St. Luke's hospital in the ambulance, suffering from a fractured leg. The injury was received through a fall from a bridge.

The two sons of Thomas Tvedt, who disappeared Sunday night, in company with Billy Oreckovsky, the newsboy known as "Mascot," returned to their home shortly after 4 in the morning, and relieved their parents of a good deal of anxiety. The boys had been wandering around the docks.

The directors of the Business Men's association will meet this noon in the office of President C. H. Graves.

Yesterday ex-Governor John Miller of North Dakota, F. M. Guthrie and S. W. Pierce were elected members of the Duluth board of trade.

One of the big teams of the Duluth Van company became frightened last evening and ran up Third avenue west to Superior street and there turned east. The team had commenced to gain good headway when it was stopped by George E. Gibson of the American Exchange bank.

The Sons of Veterans will give a moonlight excursion on Wednesday of next week. Music and dancing will be among the attractions.

The Towne club will meet at 118 Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A musical and literary meeting of Ionic Lodge, A. F. and A. M. was held last night at the hall in the Masonic temple. The program was elaborate and enjoyable.

Dr. Oronhyatekha of Toronto, Can., supreme chief ranger, L. O. F., will institute a professional and business men's court in this city on the night of July 27. He will arrive on the 25th.

The American Heating company with B. H. Ober, L. M. Ober, W. B. Dunlap of Duluth and John L. Cash and Perry J. Ekstrand of Superior, has incorporated. The capital stock is placed at 100 shares of $100 each.

John P. Larson will be taken before Judge Ayer this afternoon on a question of sanity.