

HAS LOST A SISTER.

Jacob Wienberg of Duluth, Seeks His Sister Nettie.

Jacob Wienberg, of Duluth, is in St. Paul looking for his seventeen-year-old sister, Nettie Wienberg, who ran away from home last Sunday. The police have been given a description of the young girl and asked to detain her for her relatives, if found.

It is known that the girl came to this city, as she was seen by Officer William Bunker late Sunday night. She asked the officer about hotel accommodations and he directed her to the Grand Central hotel, at Seventh and Wabasha streets. Her name is on the hotel register and a valise belonging to her is still in the office, though neither officer nor the brother could yesterday locate the girl, who left the hotel Wednesday evening. When she went away she informed the proprietor that she had met an acquaintance in St. Paul and was going to stay with his family until she could procure employment. The friend's name she said was Dr. E. C. Boxell. Yesterday the proprietor was given a note by a man claiming to be Dr. Boxell, which requested that Miss Wienberg's valise be turned over to him. The valise, however, was not taken away, and word was left that it would be called for again. The only Dr. Boxell known to live in St. Paul or its vicinity, resides at St. Paul Park.
