

CLOQUET.

---

Special to The News Tribune.

CLOQUET, July 21.—Denis Desmond, an old-time resident, leaves today with his family for Bangor, Me.

O. S. Parker received the sad news yesterday that his father had died at Whitehall, Wis., and immediately left for there.

The village of Cloquet received a new bell for the city hall today, to replace the old one, which is cracked.

There are no less than six raffles conducted in this place at present.

The Old Fellows' lodge have cards out for an entertainment for Monday night.

The small child of John Johnson, who died Wednesday, was buried yesterday afternoon.

Isaac Summerfield of Duluth visited his brother and friends here yesterday.

John McManus of West Duluth was in town today.

E. P. Duffey and family of Cromwell called on friends here Friday.

---