

came in from the woods on Saturday and left for Duluth on Monday.

A. Tholne, formerly with the Virginia Furniture company, but now of Biwabik, spent Sunday here with friends.

Mayor P. E. Scott left for the Zenith City on Saturday, where he will spend a few days looking up his interests in that vicinity.

J. D. Zien of Duluth is on the range this week looking up his business which is extensive.

Miss Minnie Bray left for Hibbing yesterday, where she will remain for a few days.

The last sad rites attending the demise of the late Mrs. Ott took place on Sunday. The Mesaba Range tent No. 14, K. O. T. M. took charge of the services. Mrs. Ott was taken to the Presbyterian church where the Rev. J. Jamieson of Duluth conducted a pathetic service, after which the remains were taken to the beautiful cemetery. At the same time the remains of the late Johnny Thomas were laid to rest. The funeral cortege was the largest seen in Virginia.

Al Bickford of Hibbing and Peter Sempley of this city, were visitors to the Mountain Iron mine on Monday.

Rev. J. Jamieson, Presbyterian minister of Duluth, conducted services in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Talboys and youngest son drove over from Eveleth on Monday. Mr. Talboys says the roads are in splendid condition and it is a pleasure to drive over them.

Mrs. Babcock of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city on Friday. Mrs. Babcock is a sister of Mr. Walter Ott, and arrived here too late to see Mrs. Ott alive. She will remain here a few weeks.

A. B. Johnson, who has charge of the section from Wolf to Iron Junction on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern, was a visitor here on Sunday.

John Hoveland, formerly with M. H. Martin at the Fair, has bought out the interest of F. and I. Rosson, in the saloon business and now Nelson & Hoveland are the proprietors.

Dr. Stuart Bales was called to Ironwood, Mich., on Saturday by telegram to attend professionally one of his numerous friends in that city.

The Ollie Torbett company played and sang to crowded houses on Saturday and Sunday evenings in this city. Miss Torbett in her selections played admirably. Lutteman quintet rendered selections in six different languages, and was a host in itself. The pianist, Miss Mawson, was simply superb.

E. Z. Griggs was a Duluth visitor on Sunday, as a guest of the Kitchi Gammi club, returning with his daughter Mable on Monday.

The ladies of the Church Lady of Loudes gave a social at the Schipley building last evening, where ice cream, cake and coffee was served by a bevy of young and married ladies. A large Bible was raffled off and E. C. Burke, our popular postmaster, won it. A dance was given afterwards, and the entertainment netted a good sum, which will go toward building a parsonage for the priest in charge.

Will Kingston of Tower, is in the city assisting Mr. and Mrs. Lang to dispose of the surplus stock of the Virginia Cash store.

Pay at all the mines, and at Mountain Iron is making times look lively around the city.

Messrs. Roberts and McDonald, two prominent Maccabees of Mountain Iron, were in the city Monday making arrangements for a dance and Supper at the bing on Friday.

VIRGINIA.

Special to The News Tribune.

VIRGINIA, Aug. 24.—Capt. W. E. Dickenson, prosecuting attorney of Florence County, Wis., is registered at the Virginia.

Ransome Metcalf, editor, justice of the peace and postmaster of Biwabik, was a visitor at Virginia on Saturday.

A. N. Thompson, the popular agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company, went to Hibbing yesterday.

Mrs. John Moriartz, wife of Alderman Moriartz of the Second ward, left on Monday for her new home at Calumet, Mich.

Mrs. Max Dreger of Duluth, visited over Sunday, with her brother, Herman Krause. Mrs. Dreger returned Monday. Willie and May Brennan, accompanied her as far as Duluth, where they will join their grandmother, Mrs. B. Brennan.

Byron Blakeslie, chief clerk of the Sparta Supply company, was a visitor to Virginia on Tuesday.

Mr. Maxwell and two sons returned to their home at West Superior on Monday. Mrs. Maxwell has been on a visit of a few days with her husband, who is a brakeman on the Oliver branch of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern yard at this place.

Al E. Bickford and wife of Hibbing came over on Saturday, to sing at the St. Peter's festival of the church of the Lady of Loudes, and to assist at the social on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bickford returned this morning to their home at Hibbing.

Peter McAlpine, a cruiser, left here on Monday for Lake county where he will look up lands for some Minneapolls men.

Dan McPherson, formerly city marshal,