

PEOPLE AT BIWABIK.

Personal Mention of Some Holiday Goings and Comings.

Special to News Tribune.

BIWABIK, Dec. 30.—Miss Tipple left Saturday for Soudan, where she will spend the holidays with friends.

Louis Glassner is spending the holiday at home. He will return to school Monday.

Mr. Phelps has returned to Biwabik after an absence of three months.

Miss Jennie Trevena, celebrated her 14th birthday by inviting some of her young friends Xmas eve.

Miss Smith and sister, Mrs. Gardener, spent Xmas with their parents in Biwabik.

Miss Bale and brother Willie, from Ely, are spending the holidays with Biwabik friends.

Mrs. Morrill went to Duluth to meet her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kearney left Saturday for Ishpeming from where they will go to Ironwood.

Mrs. Shilling went to Duluth Friday returning the same day.

Mrs. Penrod left this morning for Wau-pun, Wis., having received a telegram that her father was dying.

A sleighride party was given for the Sunday school Saturday.

Mrs. Murphy's baby is very low.

Mrs. Humphrey, H. E. Poole, John and George McWhinney, jr., and Mr. Will Soulan are over from Eveleth.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins of Minneapolis, are visiting with friends.

The Misses Carmichael entertained some of their young friends Wednesday evening. Among those present were Misses Bale, Trevena, Brown, Glassner, Trevena and Moran and Messrs. Bell, Davis, Glassner, Bale, Gleason and Trevena.

Miss Ogin is spending the holidays at her home in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Castleton died Monday morning of pneumonia after a short illness. She was buried at Lake Side cemetery Wednesday. Her husband and two married daughters survive her.

Exercises were held in the Congregational church Xmas.

Mrs. Dr. Sewill returned Monday after an extended visit with the doctor's parents in Minneapolis.

Miss Wright left Tuesday for Two Harbors, where she will visit a few days.

The rink is in a very good shape now and is being well patronized by the young folks.

The proverb seems to prove true that, "As the days begin to lengthen the cold begins to strengthen."

Miss Miller was over from Sparta Saturday.