

'NOTHER JUNE BRIDE

LARGELY ATTENDED JEWISH WEDDING YESTERDAY.

Mr. Edelstein of West Superior and Miss Sadie Cohen of Duluth are Married at Odd Fellows' Hall. Large Assemblage of Friends in Both Cities Are Present at the Ceremony.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday at the Odd Fellows' hall on Lake avenue. It was the occasion of the marriage of Mr. S. Edelstein of West Superior, to Miss Sadie Cohen of 9 Garfield avenue, celebrated according to the Jewish rite.

About 6 o'clock last evening a line of carriages came through Superior street at a merry pace and made its way to the hall. The carriages contained the young couple with their attendants and relatives and friends. The party alighted and proceeded upstairs to the hall, where over 400 guests were already congregated.

Pine music was in attendance and after marching several times around the room the bridal party stepped under the canopy and the wedding ceremony was performed. Rabbi Abramokivitz, assisted by Mr. Shapiro, officiated. Charles Pollinsky, David Kassmir, Henry Kassmir of Duluth, and Roy Edelstein of West Superior, acted as best men. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Karon of West Superior, Misses Mary and Sadie Pollinsky, and Miss Kassmir of Duluth. The flower girls were Sarah Oreckowsky, Florence Levine and Eva Pollinsky. The leaders of the wedding were Sam Blasberg and M. E. Edelstein of West Superior. The bride was very prettily dressed for the occasion; and flowers in profusion were in evidence.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests wended their way to the lower floor of the building, where the wedding feast was served. After they had disposed of the good things at the supper, dancing was begun, and the pleasures of the dreamy waltz held full sway until the short hours.

The groom, Mr. Edelstein, is the proprietor of the New England furniture store, at West Superior, and the bride is a popular and well known young lady of Duluth, having resided with her parents in this city for the past 12 years. Mr. and Mrs. Edelstein will be at home in West Superior.
