PROSPEROUS FREEBORN FARMERS

Creameries of This County Alone Paid Patrons $600,000 Net Last Year.

Special to The Journal.
Albert Lea, Minn., Jan. 27.—The annual reports of the various co-operative creameries are now being made, and they show interesting figures. The creameries at Geneva village, Harland, Clark's Grove, Albert Lea, Alden, Rice land and Poplar Grove, seven in number, received $2,967,524 pounds of milk during the year just closed, and out of this milk, 1,410,977 pounds of butter was manufactured, showing that for the year it required about 2 1/4 pounds of milk to make one pound of butter, the milk being a little better than 4 per cent. The total gross receipts of these creameries were $243,892.00, and the patrons who furnished the milk received $217,616.25, showing the total expense of operation, sinking fund, etc., for the seven to have been only $26,275.75, or a little over 10 per cent of the gross receipts. Of course, these figures do not include the butter-milk and skimmed milk the farmers have for feed, and which is estimated to be worth 15 cents per hundred pounds.

There are nineteen other creameries in the county, but several of them are small; still the gross receipts of the twenty-six will reach nearly three-quarters of a million dollars for the year just closed, and the net amount paid patrons will be not far from $600,000.

NORTH DAKOTA DIVORCE

Was Mr. Havemeyer's Bride—She Stopped at Jamestown.

Special to The Journal.
Jamestown, N. D., Jan. 27.—A dispatch from Washington gives an account of the wedding at that place by Rev. Byron Sunderland of Adah, daughter of Mrs. John Bryant, to J. Craig Havemeyer. The bride spent last summer in this city and recently procured a divorce at Grand Forks from her former husband, Mr. Barnes of New York. The groom is a prominent broker of New York and is a member of one of the first families of that city. The ceremony was witnessed by only Mrs. C. B. Brown of this city and John D. Gallaway of New York city.

It was a romantic event. The bride waited at a Washington hotel for just a week before Mr. Havemeyer joined her from New York. It was given out by the relatives of the groom that the bride was a Virginian. While a resident of this city the bride excited admiration by her great beauty and beautiful gowns. Mrs. Havemeyer returned yesterday from Washington to this city.

PAPER AND POSTMASTER

They Seem to Be at Odds at Redwood Falls.

Special to The Journal.
Redwood Falls, Minn., Jan. 27.—On last Wednesday the city list of the Gazette was held up two hours in the Redwood Falls postoffice, and it was not until the publishers protested that a distribution of this list began—at 11:30 o'clock. On Saturday the publishers received a letter addressed in typewriter to "The Redwood Gazette, Redwood Falls, Minn.," which had been opened by the postmaster, G. B. Hughes, and marked "Opened by mistake." For three weeks a paper has been plainly marked "James A. Larson, Room 11, Astoria Hotel, St. Paul, Minn.," and not one of these have been received.

Nothing for the Father.

Special to The Journal.
Deadwood, S. D., Jan. 27.—A rather strange thing has come to light in the will of John J. Fayel, who died recently at Lead. He dictated his will to a Deadwood attorney a few hours before his death. His fortune reached nearly half a million, and yet in the will but one dollar is left to his aged father, of Theresa, N. Y. The son left large amounts for the cemetery, public schools and other public improvements in his old home. The executors of the will, John S. George, of Milwaukee; John Yost, of Theresa and P. M. Ranney, of Keystone, S. D., have taken it upon themselves to provide for the aged father. They will fit up the public library as soon as possible with the liberal endowment and place the old man in charge of it. The elder Fayel is a cripple and is said to be in poor circumstances.

Dr. Smith a Candidate.

Iowa City, Iowa, Jan. 27.—S. G. Smith of St. Paul, regent of the state university of Minnesota, was yesterday mentioned as a possible candidate for the presidency of the state university. Benjamin L. Wheeler of Cornell, N. Y., was another candidate mentioned.

The board of regents held a meeting here. A committee of three, Walter I. Habb, M. Pleasant; Parker K. Holbrook, Marengo, and Harvey Ingham of Algona, were appointed to make investigations of personal qualifications of the many candidates and report in March. Dr. Devine of New York is considered the most likely candidate. The regents adopted plans for the $200,000 collegiate building.

Gift of Eau Claire Ladies.

Special to The Journal.
Eau Claire, Wis., Jan. 27.—A number of society ladies recently formed themselves into an ambulance society. Yesterday they ordered a $25 ambulance which they will present to the city.

Wolfan Will Beg.

West Superior, Wis., Jan. 27.—The first of the cases against the participants in the Sunday fight at the Jewish synagogue over the Wolfan case has ended so far as the lower court is concerned. Max Osherman, tried for assault on E. B. Wolfan, was found guilty by a jury and fined $10 and costs. Other cases will come up next week. Wolfan is able to be out after his pummeling.

Wolfan proposes to sue for slander when the present cases are finished. The post-mortem examination of Mrs. Wolfan show conclusively that there was no poison to cause death.

Hughes Murder Trial.

Mason City, Iowa, Jan. 27.—In the Hughes murder trial the defense in cross-examining expert witnesses yesterday brought out some evidence to show symptoms of insanity or tetanus as accountable for the death of Ed Hughes. Dr. J. M. Charlton of Clear Lake said the symptoms were strong and positive enough to prove death by poison without a post mortem.

Judge Sherwin yesterday ruled to admit the evidence of Ambsemer Standak, shot out yesterday.

The ruling is important, in that it contains an analysis of the embalming fluid to show it did not contain strychnine. The defense has tried to account for the strychnine in this way.
