

JANUARY'S OPENING JAGS.

Some of the Select Who Failed to Swear Off.

Charles Olson was arrested for assaulting Matilda Peterson, who lives at 167 West First street, yesterday. Olson was arraigned before Judge Edson in police court yesterday, and was sent up for 25 days. A. A. Allen, who was arrested on Monday night for disorderly conduct, failed to appear, and his bail, amounting to $5, was declared forfeited. D. G. Ross, arrested on the same charge, was fined $1 and costs, and paid. Peter Simon was sent up for 10 days for drunkenness. Simon's face looked as though its owner had been having an argument with his mother-in-law.

Joseph Polinsky and Charles Polinsky paid their fines of $10 each for assaulting P. Fenette at their store on Dec. 19.
