Mayor Truelsen Takes Part In Procession and Speaks.

The new Jewish synagogue at No. 223 East Fifth street, known as Han-ecké's Abless, was formally dedicated by the Tifereth Israel congregation Sunday afternoon. Those taking part in the ceremony met in the old church at the corner of Ninth avenue East and marched to the new church, those in the lead carrying the Jewish bible. The carrying of bibles is considered a high honor, and those wanting the privilege were obliged to bid for it. Mayor Truelsen was an honored guest, and besides taking part in the procession, made a short address during the services.

The officers of the Tifereth Israel congregation, which is one of the largest of the orthodox Hebrew congregations in the Northwest, are as follows: President, T. L. Levine; vice president, M. Caplow; secretary, I. M. Orecovsky; trustees, W. Goldstein, I. Orecovsky, T. Lieberman and H. Caplow.
