

ALL ADMIT IT.

Four Drunks Go up the Hill and One Forfeits Bail.

John Murphy, P. K. Small, Ed McGuire, Gust Wilson and Andrew Waterson were all arraigned in police court yesterday and pleaded guilty to drunkenness except Waterson, who denied the allegation, and put up $12 for his appearance in the afternoon. The first four were sent to jail for 10 days. Waterson did not appear for trial and his bail was forfeited.

August Husbaburg was sent to jail for 10 days, being drunk and carrying concealed weapons.

The action brought by Mrs. Mary Sylvester against her husband, O. W. Sylvester, Jr., charging him with non-support, was up yesterday and dismissed on motion of the assistant city attorney. Sylvester promised to take better care of his wife.

The case against Moses S. Cook, for allowing card playing in his saloon, at No. 433 West Michigan street, was set for yesterday afternoon, but as the complaining witness did not appear, it was postponed to Dec. 13.
