

NEIGHBORHOOD HAPPENINGS

Newsy Correspondence from the busy places in the Vicinity of Duluth.

BIWABIK HAS A CAUCUS.

And a Full List of Township Officers Is Chosen.

Special to News Tribune.

BIWABIK, Minn., March 10.—At the township caucus held in the Henderson building last Tuesday the following officers were nominated:

Supervisors—P. S. Dane and E. Kinney.
Township clerk—D. Cameron.
Township treasurer—John Lutes.
Assessor—N. Shank.
Overseer—J. S. Hendon.
Constable—Dan O'Hara.

Those who came over from McKinley to attend the caucus were Messrs. Salmon, Milbrook, Dundas, White, Olson and Kompasky.

The village caucus was held in the same place on the previous Friday and the annual election will take place next Tuesday. The old administration was very good and it is hoped the coming one will be its equal.

Mr. Sanicola was over from Eveleth Saturday to rent his building here to Messrs. Sorenson & Anderson who are now located in the Steinberg building, but will occupy their new place in a few months from now.

Master Wille Hamburg had the misfortune of being bit by Mr. Verrill's dog last Saturday. It did not prove to be very serious.

Mr. Wheeler, the county superintendent, made his first inspection visit here Monday.

Miss Bessie Brown is expected from Duluth next week, after an extended visit with friends.

Toney Mainz has moved his meat market back from Sparta into Endrizzi's building. The latter is busy hauling ice from Embarrass lake for Tony.

Roadmaster Burnette, of the D., M. & N. Ry., was in town last Saturday on business.

The Knights of Pythias are progressing very nicely in this town. They are receiving new members nearly every week.

Mr. Topham came up from Duluth last week with a company of men for his logging camps near McKinley. His former crew left with short notice. For a few days all operations were at a stand still at the camps.

Colvin & Robb, the lumbermen who have a camp about a mile and a half from town, have 1,000,000 feet of logs to cut before they break up their camps. They have about 2,500,000 feet cut already between Eveleth and Biwabik camps. At both camps they employ about 150 men. They have a contract for 2,000 cords of logging. Charles Verrill is cutting and hauling 200 cords of logging timber for the firm. At both camps they employ about 150 men.

Messrs. Jim and William Loulan came over from Eveleth Tuesday.

James Tearney has a number of men employed at cutting ties for the Drake & Stratton company.

Frank Faber, who has been cutting 200 cords of wood for the village for the past few months has completed his contract.

Judson Clifford, who was a resident during the busy months here, has moved his family to Eveleth where he will be employed with the Drake & Stratton company the coming summer.

Otto Johnson, a blind boy that lived here last summer, was taken to Duluth Saturday by Humane Officer Withrow. He will receive treatment at St. Mary's hospital.

J. Q. Humphrey and Wm. Toulon were Virginia visitors last Monday.

The Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway company have put on a logging train which runs between Biwabik, Virginia, Eveleth and Hibbing.

Rev. Hanson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of Virginia, delivered a sermon at the Congregational church here Tuesday.

Mr. Galeazzi has completed the ice house for the Fitzer Brewing company opposite Colvin & Robb's office. The place will soon be filled with Embarrass lake ice.

Dr. Bray returned from a business trip in Duluth Friday.

Miss Cornelia La France is staying with friends in McKinley.

Mr. Pabinowitz is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Kompasky of McKinley was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Faber Friday.

Dr. Sewell came over from McKinley Monday, returning the same day.

Miss Nora Miller of Sparta was seen here Saturday.

Capt. White drove over from McKinley Sunday, spending a few hours in town.

Scott Heffel came over from Proctor Saturday to visit with his mother here.

Mrs. Carmichael returned from a brief visit with friends in Hibbing Friday.

The Literary club met at the home of Mrs. Glassner this week.

The young people are getting up a dance for St. Patrick's day. They are trying to make it a swell affair.

Leroy Welty representing the Zenith Paper company, called on customers Wednesday.

Victor Johnson of McKinley made a business trip to Biwabik Wednesday.

A spider web party was to be given at the home of Miss Pearl Browne March 9, but it has been postponed.

Messrs. Isaacson & Mattson have applied for liquor license. They intend to start up in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Duby.

Mr. Fishbein of Duluth gave the business men a call Wednesday.

Mr. Maurice Greenberg, a brother of Mrs. Shapiro, is to be married in Superior Sunday to a young lady of that place.

Walter Smith of Mariska was in town Monday trying to get up a class in music here.

The school board has presented the school with a nice flag which was hoisted Monday in the school yard. It is something the school has needed. The generosity of the board is much appreciated.

Mr. Norton, car repairer for the D., M. & N. Ry. at this place last summer, came up from Proctor last week on a brief stay.

Miss Mary Verrill is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Dr. Sewell and son came over from McKinley Friday to visit with friends.

W. W. Browne is having the place that he purchased repaired, and it will make a very nice building when completed.

Mr. Lundin made a business trip to Virginia Friday, returning the same day.

Mr. Potosnick of McKinley came to town Friday on a shopping trip.

F. S. Colvin was a Duluth visitor Thursday.

Chas. Miller representing the Duluth Paper company, called on the merchants Friday.

Mr. River has opened a shoemaker's shop in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Verrill. That is a thing that the town has been wanting for some time.