

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilk Receive for Their Daughter.

MRS. WM. ANKENY ENTERTAINS

Cards the Pastime and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ankeny the Guests of Honor.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilk gave a dinner last evening at their home, 600 Twenty-sixth street E., for their daughter, Miss Erna Wilk, who was one of the class confirmed yesterday morning in the Reformed Congregational synagogue. Potted plants and palms were arranged through the rooms and the mantel was backed with viola vires and ferns. A cluster of pink roses in a tall vase placed on a mirror formed the centerpiece. Covers were laid for twelve and the guests included Dr. A. Friedman and the members of the immediate family. In the evening an informal reception was given and about 150 called to offer their congratulations and leave some dainty souvenir of the occasion. Miss Wilk wore a pretty white gown and received with her parents. Frappe was served by the Misses Eva and Meta Keen.

Mr and Mrs Max Wolf of Portland avenue gave an informal reception last evening in honor of the confirmation of their son, Maurice L. Wolf. The dining-room was in green and yellow, with a cluster of jonquills as a centerpiece. Fifty guests called during the evening.

Mrs William Ankeny entertained at cards last evening at her home on Ninth street S for Mr and Mrs William Schell Ankeny, nee Adams. Progressive euchre was played and refreshments served from the small tables after the games. There were about forty guests.

Miss Netterole made hosts of warm friends by her Minneapolis engagement, especially among the women. The Saturday matinee in St. Paul was attended by many Minneapolis women, among them Misses W. D. Gregory, Turner, H. L. Haskinson, J. Falls Linton, E. W. Markus, the Misses Wagner, the Misses Brudage, Misses Virginia Linton, Gertrude Linton and Helen Hart.

Mr. and Mrs W. S. Coe gave a reception Friday evening in honor of their brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs W. T. Coe. Mr. Coe was quartermaster of the Fifteenth regiment. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. F. E. Holton and Mrs D. B. Skinner. Frappe was served during the evening by Misses Helene Koenig and Beata Klugore. The dining-room was draped in red, white and blue, and brightened with carnations, and was presided over by Misses Alice Thaxter, Ethel Thaxter, Olive Bishop, Grace Dale and Emma Hicks. An informal musical program was furnished by J. O. Davis and W. F. Dennyhoff. There were 100 who called during the evening.

Mrs. A. Harris received informally this afternoon at her home, 1400 Ninth street S, in honor of her guests, Mrs L. Brin and Miss Rose Brin, of Chicago. The hours were from 3 until 6 o'clock, and a number of women called.

Miss Kvere has issued a large number of invitations for a german in honor of the senior class at Stanley hall, to be given Friday evening.