Special Announcement!

...TO THE THOUSANDS...

Who visited us during yesterday's business hours, and to the MANY MORE THOUSANDS who came to our evening reception, we extend our hearty thanks. It was an overwhelming honor, and we appreciate it. You gave us strong evidence by your liberal response to our invitation that you appreciated our efforts to provide a Magnificent Store for the people "at the head of the lakes." We shall be on the alert to retain your confidence in us, so strongly emphasized by your visits during the first day of our opening. Our mission will be to cater to all in the best possible manner. Our motto will be constantly in mind: "Better goods for the same money or the same goods for less money than elsewhere." "All goods not satisfactory can be exchanged or returned," and "money will be cheerfully refunded at all times."

You will always find trading in Duluth's Greatest Store a positive pleasure and delight. Respectfully,
I. FREIMUTH.

A DAILY MESSAGE.

A Simple Remedy Which Will Interest Cataract Sufferers.

In its early stages cataract is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease spreads to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Cataract is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the cataractal fount from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing cataract is Stuart's Cataract Tablets. These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastin, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the cataractal poison.

Stuart's Cataract Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozengers taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they can also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole cataractal trouble, without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bennett states "that the internal treatment for cataract is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Cataract Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for cataract are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Cataract Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.
