Tomorrow night at the Lyceum will take place the production of the opera "Martha" by home talent for the benefit of St. Mary's hospital. The event has been looked forward to with considerable interest by music lovers and that it will be an entertainment worthy of the patronage which it will receive there is no reason to doubt. If rehearsals and hard work count for anything, it will be one of the best home talent productions ever given here. The parts are in the hands of good, experienced and talented singers, and the chorus has been well drilled and will be a feature of the performance. Ample orchestra rehearsals have been held and the costumes are gorgeous, rich and beautiful. The music of "Martha"

is beautiful and pleasing, and will be rendered as it should be. Owing to the illness of Mr. Halling it was found necessary to cast Mr. Harry Howell, of West Superior, for the part of Tristan, and the lack of learning the part in so short notice is unprecedented in local opera. He knows and does the part well. Several box parties are arranging and some out of town society folk will be here to witness the performance.

Duluth: Socially

For the concert of May 4 Genevieve Clark Wilson, the celebrated soprano, has been chosen as soloist because she is regarded as the queen among American concert singers. She is always loyal to the interests of her own country and has done a great deal towards bringing out the works of American composers.
