

DULUTH SOCIALLY

The annual charity ball which will take place next Tuesday evening at the Spalding will, as usual, be one of the leading society functions of the year. It is given this year for the benefit of the Children's Home Society and the board of managers will endeavor to make the event more than ever one of enjoyment for all that attend. There are many people who enjoy square dances, Virginia reels, etc., and the dance program will be so arranged that it will provide for all. Those who do not dance will be provided with card rooms, or they may occupy comfortable seats to watch the dancing. The Children's Home is a very popular charitable institution, and as special means have been taken to make the charity ball a greater success in many ways than ever, it is expected the home will receive a very substantial benefit.

The floor committee will be composed of W. C. Sargent, Dr. D. H. Day,

The Ladies Auxiliary, Division No. 1 of the A. O. U. W. gave a card party in the Kalamazoo hall Wednesday evening which proved to be a most enjoyable affair. Lunch was played and there were twenty-five tables. Miss Agnes McNulty won the ladies' head prize and J. H. Sullivan was given the head prize for the gentlemen. Miss Alice O'Leary and Owen J. Hunt received the consolation prizes. Lunch was served during the evening.

Miss Frances C. Daniels, one of Duluth's popular young ladies, will be married to Mr. John W. Stewart of Marquette, Mich., next Wednesday.

Mrs. F. E. Evans, of Two Harbors, returned home Wednesday after a short visit with friends here.

Mr. W. C. Trout has gone to Milwaukee.

The Army was the scene of an enjoyable event Tuesday evening, when a large number of the ladies and Knights of the Maccabees assembled in honor of George J. Siegle, of Port Huron, supreme record keeper of the order and I. N. Chellev, of St. Paul, state supreme deputy. An excellent musical program was rendered, followed by several speeches by the guests of the evening. The occasion was brought to a pleasant conclusion with a dance.

Mrs. J. O. Johnson, Sixteenth and Grand, entertained about a dozen friends at a dinner Sunday.

Mr. O. Olson, the West Duluth jeweler, has returned from a three-month's trip to Norway.

Miss Nina Landsverk has returned to her home in Virginia, after an extended visit with relatives in West Duluth. She was accompanied by Miss Alpha Evenson.

Mrs. N. C. Hardy, and children, of St. Paul, are visiting friends in the city.

The marriage of Miss Isabelle V. Brackinreed and Mr. Walter M. Ober took place Wednesday, Nov. 14, at Great Falls, Montana. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Zaufes. Mr. and Mrs. Ober will make their fu-

At the pleasant affairs of the past week was the dancing party in Masonic Temple Tuesday evening by the Young Ladies' club of St. Paul's church, for the benefit of St. Luke's hospital. Punch was served throughout the evening and La Brosse's orchestra played for the dancing. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huse, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Totman, Mr. and Mrs. P. Doran, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Burg, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Carpenter, Miss Minnie Thompson, Miss Kathryn Dolan, Miss Jane Everington, Miss Agnes Jones, Miss Ethel Chapman, Miss Theresa Lynn, Miss Jessie Carpenter, Miss Antoinette West, Miss Anna Melby, Miss Julie Davis, the Misses Huntington, Miss Bertha Muir, Miss McDonald, Miss Larkie, Miss Bigelow, Miss Rose, Miss Florence Ely, Powell Grady, J. G. Ginger, Ed. Kent, D. G. McCarthy, Fred Niles, William Jones, Walter Williams, Harold E. Piroe, Edward Dietz, H. C. Benson, Hale Kitchi, Wilford Kitchi, M. Braubury, Mr. Richardson, Elmer White, Clyde Farmer, Nate Giddings, Mr. Treadway, L. Gesslin, Walter McLean, Mr. Reilly, C. P. Rank, Stanley Wishart, Walter Scott, Mr. Lyons, Wallace Bagley, Morris Fremuth and Robert H. Cox.

The Masons very kindly refunded the rent of the hall, which enabled the club to clear over $100. The success of this party was largely due to the efforts of the following committee in charge: Miss Everington, chairman; Miss Cole, Miss Jones, Miss Alice Cole, Miss Hastable, Miss Stoughton, Miss West and Miss Edinhardt. There is some talk of the club giving a party each month, as the first two have been so successful, both socially and financially.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson have returned from their wedding trip and gone to housekeeping at their new home on Fifty-eighth avenue.

Mrs. T. H. Glaskin is visiting friends and relatives in southern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Walter Whitaker has gone to Chicago.

A solo team has been organized at Craggencroft and they expect to play with a city team Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Frank H. Leslie returned from Minneapolis Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. Pillsbury, formerly residents of this city but now of Fairbault, Minn., are visiting with friends in Duluth and Superior.

Miss Loretta V. Ware, a niece of Mrs. F. A. Blake, has gone to St. Paul to

SOME OF DULUTH'S CHIRING MUSICIANS.

This group is part of Mrs. David H. Day's music class. The members have frequently appeared in recitals and earned well merited applause for their work.

Howard Abbott, A. M. Miller, Jr., J. H. Upham, Jr., Ward Ames, Jr., Clarence Shepard, H. W. Merchant, W. S. Teitford, A. D. Mettæ, Herbert Spencer, W. L. McLennan, R. M. Sellwood, W. B. McCormick, B. Murray Peyton and Charles McBride.

The reception committee will be composed of the board of lady managers of the Children's Home society.

The Assembly club has announced that it will observe the dawn of the twentieth century by giving an elaborate dancing party at the Spalding hotel on the night of Dec. 31. It is the intention to make the affair all that elaborate decorations, splendid music, handsomely gowned women and gallant men are capable of, while the Spalding's best talent will be called forth to regale the guests with the finest that the culinary art can devise. Flaaten's orchestra of 16 pieces will be present and play a special program of the newest music for the dancing. No effort will be spared to make the celebration in honor of the new century a fitting one and mark a new era in the local social calendar. The arrangement committee has been selected as follows: Colonel C. H. Grates, W. J. Olcott, William C. Sargent, W. E. Silvey, W. L. McLennan, William H. Peyton and A. M. Miller, Jr.

Mr. S. J. Robertson and wife, of Fort Dodge, were at the Spalding last week.

John Howard McCusick, of Howard, Minn., is in West Duluth visiting relatives.

Mr. F. L. Seixas, of St. Paul newspaper man, formerly of Duluth, was in the city last week.

Mr. C. P. Maginnis has gone east on business.

Mr. E. Hazen left Wednesday for Chicago.

Miss Gertrude Seaton, a sister of Mrs. R. L. Cochrane, has returned to West Duluth after a short absence.

The Epworth League of the Asbury Methodist church gave a pleasant birthday social Thursday evening.

Mr. M. S. Lloyd returned Tuesday from New York city, where he went to meet his mother on her return from an extended visit in England.

Mr. T. S. Wood is in Michigan on a business trip.

Miss Edith Davidson entertained the Grand club Tuesday evening at her home, 1814 East Superior street.

Mrs. P. M. Shaw, of the Spalding, gave a luncheon in the green room of the hotel Thursday afternoon. It was a very pretty and delightful affair. The decorations were chrysantheums, flowers of the valley and ferns. The colors were carried out in lavender and white. The guests were: Mrs. W. B. Silvey, Mrs. George Stone, Mrs. M. J. Forbes, Mrs. R. B. Knox, Mrs. W. J. Olcott, Mrs. H. F. Williamson, Jr., Mrs. Clark Fagg, Mrs. James E. Granger, Mrs. Howard Abbott, Mrs. P. Dovee, Mrs. F. L. Gilbert and the Misses Sellwood and Comstock.

Mrs. William Oddie left Tuesday for St. Paul.

J. H. Edwards and family of Spirit Lake, left Thursday morning for Exeter, California.

Mr. Charles F. Starkey and Miss Lida Starkey left for their Seattle home Saturday.

Mrs. W. G. Lallue of Ashtabula Terrace has gone to Detroit for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cutler returned yesterday from the Twin City.

A number of young people of Lakeside made up a skating party Friday evening, chaperoned by Miss Ella Beatty, and visited the pumping station at Lake wood. The party was made up of Randolph and Albert Motzshko, Berta Schmidt, Fannie Magner, Merlin Magner, Fred Chandler, Edith Stewart, Florence Brooks, Frank Brooks, Herbert Spencer, Ralph Magner, Frank Paine, Ruth and Jack Kennedy.

The Duluth Social Club will give their second party next Tuesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Salter entertained informally at his private grand Thursday evening.

Mr. H. B. King, of Grand Rapids, is in West Duluth on business. He is a guest of William Spencer, the two being at one time in partnership.

Mr. Joe G. and William Harrison entertained informally Friday evening.

The ladies' of the Episcopal Church will have their annual supper and sale at the Armory December 7th.