

A GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Doremus Celebrate an Interesting Anniversary.

ALSO MR. AND MRS. A. J. BLACKMAN

The Latter Their Silver Wedding—
The Two Events Are Held Together.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Doremus of 2317 Eight-and-a-half avenue B celebrated their golden wedding to-day, and at the same time Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Blackman, their son and daughter, celebrated their silver wedding. The two families live together in a house which Mr. Doremus built himself and which he began twenty years ago. Palm and evergreen decorated the rooms and every window in the house will be lighted this evening with wax candles. There will be a large attendance of relatives and friends from the Franklin Avenue Presbyterian church this evening. Rev. Bradley Phillips, who married Mr. and Mrs. Doremus in Juneau, Wis., will be present, as will Rev. J. L. Danner of Albert Lea; who officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Blackman in East Orange, N. J. Rev. Messrs. McCaslin of the Franklin Avenue Presbyterian church, and Benson and Drysdale of New London, Minn., will also be present. The guests will include two relatives from New Jersey, Mrs. J. D. Kern and Miss Hattie Doremus. Mr. and Mrs. Doremus came to Minneapolis from Wisconsin twenty years ago.

Mrs. Russell M. Bennett entertained very informally this afternoon for Mr. Bennett's sister, Mrs. G. F. Reynolds of Sheboygan, Mich., who is spending the winter in Minneapolis. About twenty women were invited to meet Mrs. Reynolds and brought their Christmas needlework for an informal afternoon together.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Koon will give a dinner for their daughter, Miss Louise Koon, and Charles D. Yelle. The guests will be the members of the two families. To-morrow Stephen Yelle of Kansas City will give a dinner for his brother. Among those who entertained last week for Miss Koon were Mrs. C. C. Bovey and Mrs. Will Bovey. Both gave afternoon teas.

Mrs. E. A. Hamilton has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Kate Hamilton, and Hazard Corwell of Mankato. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's mother, 47 Tenth street N, Jan. 1.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Agnes M. Bartels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bartels, and Albert B. Barrett, which will take place Thursday evening, Dec. 20.

Miss Pauline Kruger will give a tea Friday and Saturday afternoons at her studio in the Medical block. Miss Kruger will be assisted by a group of young women who will serve Russian tea. An interesting display of decorated Christmas articles will be shown.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Pines entertained at a dinner of eight covers Saturday evening at the Holmes Hotel. American Beauty roses adorned the tables. The guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Fred H. Wendell, Douglas A. Pike and A. C. Paul.

Mrs. Bernhard A. Leubner entertained the active and alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta to a delightful informal supper Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bernard Hardwick, of 248 Park avenue, gave a pretty luncheon Saturday afternoon for Miss Gertrude Boynton, a bride of the week. The table was decorated with holly and red roses and roses was at the place of the guest of honor. Friday afternoon Mrs. A. Y. Merrill entertained informally for Miss Boynton at her home, 2121 Third avenue B.

Mrs. P. C. Warner of 2812 Oakland avenue entertained Friday afternoon for Mrs. F. P. McDougal of Madelia and Miss Minnie Dixon. Carnations and roses were the flowers used for the decorations. The guests included Mrs. Erdman of St. Paul and Messrs. Hage and Wilson of Madelia.

Miss Mary Byrne entertained at her home on Chicago avenue Friday evening. Dancing and games were followed by a light supper. Mrs. M. J. Byrne was assisted in serving by her daughters, Margaret and Theresa.

Mrs. Thomas Levering gave a luncheon of six covers Friday for Mrs. Grovesor Pixley O'Neill. The decorations and appointments were in pink.

Mrs. Wilfred Brace entertained Wednesday evening for her cousin, Miss Grace Jenks, a student at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron H. Keat of the San Angelo, entertained Thursday in honor of Mr. Keat's birthday. The Minnie Mandolin orchestra serenaded Mr. Keat during the evening. The guests included Messrs. and Mrs. George Prentiss, M. E. Wallace, W. M. Croase; Mrs. Emma Cole, Wabasha; Mrs. Carlton Jack, Winona, and Mrs. Mary Aldrich.

Saturday evening the marriage of Miss Mamie E. Gordon and William A. La Mere was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gordon. The rooms were decorated in pink and blue, the colors of the Degree of Honor, of which both the bride and bridegroom are members. Frank Springman and Oscar L. Gordon were ushers and Ernest O. Gordon was best man. Miss Julia Blum played the "Lobengrin" chorus as a processional and the Mendelssohn march as the bridal couple turned to receive congratulations. Miss Jessie Burns was maid of honor. The bride wore white mousseline de sole over white satin and carried bride roses. Rev. A. N. Alcott read the service, which was witnessed by over fifty guests. Mr. and Mrs. La Mere will reside at 300 Fourth street NE.

Miss Sarah G. Silver, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Rosenberg, and Joseph N. Frankel of St. Paul, were married last week in the Richmond lodge parlors. Rabbi Yorsky read the service in the presence of about 100 guests. The ushers were Charles Levy, J. Levy of St. Paul, Louis and David Gerbin of Minneapolis. Little Marion Hoffman in a frock of white china silk carried the ring. Miss Anna Cohen as maid of honor wore white organdie and the flower girls, Florence Silver and Ethel Gottstein of St. Paul, were in white china silk. J. H. Silver was best man. An elaborate supper was served after the service.
