

In Social Circles

Mrs. H. C. Fertig entertained all cards this afternoon at her home, 1613 Third avenue S. It was a pink card party and the color was carried out in the decorations, the refreshments and appointments. The lights were shaded in pink and from the chandelier hung amethyst and pink carnations intertwined. Clusters of carnations and blooming anemones on mantel and cabinets added pretty touches of color. The score cards were tied with pink satin ribbon and embellished with the monogram of the hostess in pink and gold. Ten tables of progressive euchre were played. Pink frappe was served during the games and a light lunch after. Assisting Mrs. Fertig were Mrs. H. M. Weston, Mrs. Chisholm, Misses May Ankeny, Flora Douthett and Edna LeeWan. To-morrow afternoon Mrs. Fertig will entertain a second company at cards.

The trustees and pastor of the Church of the Redeemer will hold their annual reception in the church parlors this evening. Members of the church and congregation and all friends, irrespective of church connections, are most cordially invited. The parlors will be tastefully decorated and light refreshments will be served. The reception will be held from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The Vermont Association of Minnesota held its tenth annual reunion last evening at Hotel Nicolet, and about 200 were present. Palms and ferns formed a stately decoration in the parlors and anemones and ferns were in the banquet-room. On a high pedestal stood a large basket of La France roses and ferns. The flowers were the gifts of Mrs. R. B. Langdon, in memory of her husband, who was an active member of the association.

An informal reception preceded the banquet, and from 7 until 8 o'clock the guests gathered in the parlor, where they were received by a large reception group. Judge H. C. Deldon, president of the association, was unable to be present owing to illness in his family, and L. H. Batchelder of St. Paul, the vice-president, presided. No formal speeches were made, but at the close of the banquet Mr. Batchelder introduced Rome G. Brown, a member of the Dewey national monument committee of Minnesota, who reviewed the work the committee has done and made an urgent appeal to those present. It is the intention to erect a bronze statue of Dewey beside that of Ethan Allen, which stands at the foot of the capitol steps in Montpelier. The funds are all being collected from Vermonters, outside of the state, and Mr. Brown has collected $500 from Minnesota. This sum he wishes to increase to $500, and a material addition was made last evening.

The latter part of the evening was devoted to social pleasures. The dining-room was cleared for dancing and Schubert's orchestra rendered a delightful program. The guests included:
