

Sunday night and continued at intervals throughout the week, did considerable damage to property in this neighborhood. Several washouts are reported along the railroads; the local telephone system suffered some inconvenience on account of wires being put out of order, and several odd jobs were done by the high wind.

David Graham, the contractor, was a business visitor to Duluth on Monday.

H. C. Dear, of West Superior, is the guest of his brother, Frank Dear, at the headquarters of Winston Bros. & Dear.

Since the resignation of Archie Phillip as deputy game warden of this district, rocky mountain lamb is said to be a common dish at the hotels and boarding houses in this section. During the "fly season" big game is easily obtained at the lakes and rivers, and the unmolested "pot hunter" flourishes.

Fred A. Klass, the jeweler, was a business visitor to Duluth on Wednesday.

Libbing is preparing for the grandest Fourth of July celebration that ever happened on the range.

The new school building is progressing finely, and Contractor Brown is confident that the building will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the school year in September.

John Helmer was at Mountain Iron during the week, where he went to look after the exploratory work being done by Thomas Merritt.

C. E. Carlquist, of Stephen, this state, was in the city early in the week. He looked after real estate business here.

J. W. Laing, a former resident of this city, but late of Wakefield, Mich., is here with a view to relocating.

W. R. Baumbach, of Wadena, was in the city Wednesday looking after interests here.

Miss Maggie Hoar is spending a season with Michigan friends, during the summer vacation at Powers school.

Nell McEachin, late of Mountain Iron, now has charge of the grocery department of the Itasca Mercantile company. He takes the place of C. E. Stein, who will locate at Chisholm.

CASS LAKE.

Special to the News Tribune.

CASS LAKE, June 28.—William Dunlap, one of the pioneer merchants of this place, and a prominent citizen, has removed his goods and store to a new town about four miles east of Cloquet, known as Scanlon. Mr. Dunlap is the owner of the land there and has laid out the new town. The Scanlon-Gipson Lumber Co. has erected a monster saw mill there.

Cass Lake will celebrate the 4th of July with becoming dignity this year. Preparations have been made to entertain all who come; and it will be the purpose to so manage the day's program that all who spend a few hours in Cass Lake on that day will go back to their homes feeling that they have spent a profitable day and that the event has left a bright mark upon their memories.

A baseball game was played at the baseball park last Sunday afternoon between the Cass Lake "Sluggers" and the Akeley "Juniors," which resulted in a score of 16 to 6 in favor of the "Sluggers." Although the game was pretty much one-sided, it was a very interesting one. The little boys played a good game and was witnessed by a large, enthusiastic crowd. The Cass Lake "Sluggers" challenges any nine in the state under 15 years of age. Mr. W. C. Pittman, their manager, would like to hear from clubs of surrounding towns.

The washouts along the railway line between Cass Lake and Duluth last Monday was the cause of delayed trains along the line and provocative of no little profanity among the delayed travelers who always expect to get out on time.

A most disastrous electric storm occurred on the lake here last Monday and considerable damage was done. A party led by W. C. Pittman of this place were out on the "Columbia," one of the staunchest steamers on the lake, and it was only by the experience and excellent management of Capt. Yotter that the party was saved from disaster.

The baseball game played at Bemidji between Cass Lake and St. Cloud, last Sunday, was won by the former by a score of 8 to 2.

Robert Owens, day operator at the G. N. depot here, was married to Miss Flora L. Thomas, of Carlton, at West Superior, the latter part of last week.

After spending a week in Cass Lake visiting with Mrs. J. H. Strawbridge, Mrs. A. F. George and daughter Irma returned to their home at Crookston, Monday.

Carl McKinney left here on Monday for the Turtle river region where he is looking after some logs for the Glenmont Lumber Co.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Chamberlain returned Tuesday evening from an official trip to Park Rapids and Walker.

B. A. Strawbridge returned on Saturday last from a combined business and pleasure trip to Minneapolis.

A. A. Babcock left here last Friday for Marquette, Mich., where he will spend the summer.

John Kane, of East Grand Forks, was a visitor in Cass Lake the first of the week.

H. A. Smith, the hardware man, went to Duluth Monday for a week's visit with his family.

Dr. Hanley was at the county seat the latter part of last week.

The Cass Lake school board met at the Strawbridge hall Tuesday evening and selected teachers for the coming year. They are H. M. Edmund, principal; and Misses Florence King, Hattie Allen, Ella Johnson and Lulu Tuttle, teachers.

Dr. Bracken, secretary of the state board of health, arrived in Cass Lake last Friday for the purpose of investigating the condition of the small pox in this section of the country.

The Cass Lake band consists of 15 pieces now, having been strengthened with two clarinets during the past week.

Chas. Benzou, who has been "laid up" with hemorrhage of the lungs during the last two weeks, is on the way to recovery and will soon be able to resume his duties at the mill.

Anton Lang returned the latter part of last week from his homestead about 20 miles north of Blackduck. While there Mr. Lang erected a house besides making other improvements on the place.

Mrs. H. Spielman returned to her home at Shakopee, Minn., on Saturday last after a week's visit here with her son, George Spielman.

Mrs. Carol Judkins left here last Tuesday for St. Paul to meet her husband, when they will leave for Owings, Iowa, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. G. N. Hitchcock left Saturday morning for Frontenac, Minn., to visit her daughter, Miss Mamie, who is attending the Villa Marie.

Miss Effie Purdy, of West Superior, is here visiting with her brother, H. B. Purdy.

Arthur Ludwig has accepted a position as switchman in the local yards of the Great Northern.

Cass Lake is possessed of a lot of miserable curs which are not of any value or use and some one who is annoyed by their antics has resorted to the use of poison to get rid of them. Placing out poison is dangerous work and he who does it may be prosecuted; but the owner of a worthless dog has no right to permit it to impose on his neighbors. Let the poisoning be discontinued and bring out the shot gun and when one of these curs annoys you shoot him as you would any other worthless predatory animal that destroys your property.

Mrs. Fred W. Smith met with a most distressing accident on Friday morning last. While attempting to close a window that had a broken pane of glass, her right hand slipped and coming in contact with the sharp edge, cut a tendon on the back of the right hand, making a most dangerous and painful wound.

The fishing season was never better at Cass Lake than this year. All the beautiful streams tributary to this beautiful inland ocean seem to have contributed their supply of fish large enough to be gamy, to the supply of the lake, and the catches made this year exceed those of any previous year since this became so popular as a summer resort.

The Cass Lake Boat company, of which Conductor J. E. Nelson and James E. Cardle are now the proprietors, George Lydick having retired, have the most complete outfit of boats and fishing outfit on any of the lakes in the upper country, and anything from a rowboat to a houseboat is to be had. The company is improving its property and a new dock and boat house will be erected at once at a cost of $3,000.

The city is being improved and the council has ordered a special election to be held on July 16 for the purpose of voting on a proposition to issue negotiable certificates of the village in the sum of $10,000 to build a sewer system.

TOWER.

Special to The News Tribune.

TOWER, Minn., June 28.—The discovery of another bed of ore, at a depth of 1,300 feet beneath a ledge of jasper, which for the past two years was supposed to mark the bottom of the ore pit of the Minnesota mine at Soudan, is the cause of much jubilation here, as it was feared that the mine had about reached the limit of its usefulness and that it was only a question of a very short time before operations would necessarily cease. The new deposit bids fair to be equally as rich as the former one and it is believed to extend under Lake Vermillion. This, however, is only a surmise as yet.

Mayor Murphy says that $1,200 has been raised to defray the expenses of the Fourth of July demonstration and from reports he has received from the various committees in charge, it will be a hummer with a great big capital H. A varied program of sports and amusements has been prepared and a large number of people are expected from some of the outside towns. Duluth, of course, will catch a good many owing to the low rate that has been made by the Duluth & Iron Range road, but the majority of people will remain at home and enjoy themselves to the limit. As has already been announced in these columns, Mayor Murphy will deliver a Fourth of July oration.

John Owens returned from Duluth Wednesday evening and has gone to his homestead in the Little Fork country.

N. J. Benson is enjoying a visit from his father, whose home is at North Branch.

Rev. R. C. Fugard left Monday morning for Duluth. He will also visit the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo before returning home.

J. W. Allen, factory inspector for the Duluth district; Julius Moersch, who represents the St. Paul district in the same capacity, and Labor Commissioner John O'Donnell, of St. Paul, were here the early part of the week on business connected with their offices.

Miss Mamie Murray returned Wednesday evening from a ten-days' visit with Two Harbors friends.

Matt McMahon came up from Two Harbors Monday evening and is employed as engineer in the yards at Tower Junction.

CLOQUET.

Special to the News Tribune.

CLOQUET, June 28.—Rev. D. J. Sykes of Milton, North Dakota, visited his brother Rev. T. G. Sykes the fore part of the week.

Dr. James Fleming went to Duluth Saturday to meet his brother, Robert Fleming, who was on his way home to Dresden, North Dakota, from the East.

Miss Ethel Woodward and Miss Rose Sarette have secured positions with the Zenith Telephone Company at the central station.

Rev. Andrew Nelson and family are visiting at Sturgeon Lake.

Guy L. Rogers, who has been employed at the paper mill, has purchased a half interest in the hardware business of Joseph Loisel. The new firm started in business on Monday last.

Andrew Pentilla, a settler living three miles north of the village, lost a valuable horse in Monday's terrific storm. The animal was struck by lightning in the pasture.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews leave today for Buffalo to attend the Pan-American exposition. They will also visit Mr. Andrew's mother, who lives near Buffalo.

Mrs. Hornby and children are expected home from the coast today.

Engineers Patton & Frank are testing the capacity of the springs on the lots recently purchased by the village. They believe by sinking a well about 20 feet an abundance of pure water will be secured.

The residence property of James Peacha on Arch street changed hands on Thursday. John McKenney has purchased the property and will at once take possession. Part of the residence will be converted into a store and Mr. McKenney will put in a stock of confectionery and cigars. Mr. Peacha will soon erect a residence.

Dr. A. E. Johnson's horse became frightened at a piece of flying paper Wednesday and ran away. No damage was done except to the buggy.

TWO HARBORS.

Special to the News Tribune.

TWO HARBORS, June 28.—The Two Harbors docks are making a splendid record during the rush of ore, both as to quantity and the ease with which it is handled. The local management is first class, and it is no trouble to fill up the docks faster than the boats can take it away. This rush, too, is most acceptable to the railroad men. They desire and expect hard work in the summer, as they are idle all winter. Long hours and little sleep is hard on the physical system, but it means a fat return on payday.

Business men are beginning to feel the good results attending a rush of work. The boys will soon be caught up on any little arrears incident to the slack season, and that helps out the merchants very materially.

The building boom of last season continues this season with unabated force. It is doubtful if a town in the country double the size of Two Harbors can show the amount of building and property improvements now noticeable here. There is also a good demand for realty, and if the town only had a little manufacturing, outside of the railway interests, it would be a record-breaker.

CARLTON.

Special to the News Tribune.

CARLTON, June 28.—A preliminary survey has been made for a road to the Scanlon & Brooks mill. The route lies along the St. Louis river and will not only connect with Scanlon & Brooks mill, but afford easy access to any other plants that may be located along the river. Dunby & Co. are having logs hauled from Pine Grove by rail. They propose to run their mill during the winter. Henry Rolief is making an addition to his house.

The county commissioners meet July 1st. In addition to the regular business they act as a board of tax review at that session.