

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey bldg.
Nolland's Hat Factory, 14 1st. Ave. E.
Kelly's hat hospital for sick hats.
Tibbetts, Undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St.
A decided success. Primus creamery butter, manufactured by Bridgeman & Russell.
Thin people enjoy drinking Weiss beer.

D. of H. No. 6 gives a moonlight excursion tonight. Fifth avenue dock; steamer J. C. Sult; K. P. band.

A permit for the construction of a $700 frame cottage was issued to Charles Summers, Fourth avenue West, yesterday.

The final order discharging G. G. Hartley as receiver of the Duluth-Superior Bridge company has been made by Judge Lochren and was filed in the local federal court's office yesterday. The report of Mr. Hartley, stating that he had turned over the bridge and all the property relating to it to the owners, was also filed.

The September term of district court at present promises to be a light one, only 24 new civil cases so far being on the calendar in addition to 31 continued cases. The time for filing new cases, however, does not expire until Aug. 23 and the last week generally largely increases the number of suits to be tried. In addition to the civil calendar, the criminal business of the court will probably occupy a good deal of time.

Hilma Johnson, of Hibbing, was examined yesterday as to her sanity and committed to the detention hospital in order to determine whether her condition warrants her commitment to Fergus Falls. The patient wandered from her home and was found by an officer 13 miles away in an apparently demented condition.

Elmina Bernard, daughter of Joseph P. and Lucinda Bernard, died at St. Mary's hospital Wednesday evening. The funeral will be held Saturday at 10 o'clock at the St. John Baptist church.

Charles A. Towne is in the city, looking healthy, happy, sleek and prosperous. He is putting in full time shaking hands with his friends and telling of the wonderful oil gushers of Texas. Mr. Towne declines to regale his friends with any talks on politics. Instead of saving the country, he is now devoting all his time to making money. He declares that he has plenty of interests to keep him busy and will open an office in New York city and endeavor to occupy it by Oct. 1. Mr. Towne will be in the city a week or ten days.

Workmen have just completed the decoration and renovation of the office room in the Board of Trade building which will be occupied by F. W. Eva, chief deputy inspector. It is the neatest and cleanest quarters that any of the inspectors have yet occupied and Mr. Eva feels quite proud of it.

F. C. Fiske, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly superintendent of the Decca mine at Mine Centre, was in the city yesterday. He took the afternoon train over the Duluth & Iron Range to Tower and from there will take the lake and state route for Mine Centre, where, it is said, he will meet a prospective purchaser for one of the best known mining properties over there.

This evening the ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give an intertainment in the church, at which Charles L. Burgderfer, humorist and impersonator, will be the star attraction. Mr. Burgderfer is said to be a past master in his profession. There will be the best local talent represented on the program.

The board of public works closed down the rock crushing machine for about 10 days yesterday, owing to the surplus of material on hand. About the first of the month the crusher will resume operations to supply the rock for the macadamizing of West Michigan and Missabe avenues between Eighth and Thirteenth avenues West. About 20 men will thus get a few days rest.

George H. Hillyer, who was in town a couple of days the first of the week, has gone back to Chicago. For some time Mr. Hillyer has been engaged in promoting some important mining and industrial deals down there and while he has nothing yet closed up, he reports very encouraging progress.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Snitzer, 109 First avenue East; Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, 415 West Superior street; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz, 105 First avenue East. A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, 1104 West First street.

Pawnee tribe, No. 68, of the Redmen will give a handsome entertainment tonight in Columbia hall. Dekree teams from Duluth and Superior will be present and there will be a number of candidates on hand to take the usual ride. After the initiation work a banquet will be held at the Esmond hotel.

The following passengers left on the Bradshaw last evening: Charles Schiller, Mrs. J. M. Middler, Miss L. Middler, Miss Pastoret, W. S. McCormick, A. M. Kerr, Mr. Barker, Mr. Goodleth, Mrs. Dren and daughter, and O. Mitchell.

The regular meeting of the Federated Trades Assembly will be held this evening at Kalamazoo hall. The evening will be devoted largely to consideration of the Labor day celebration.

Amus and George Apostolakas were acquitted, in police court yesterday, of the charge of assaulting Mike Contus and John Ciriginas.

Brownie and Joseph Kosculske, two Polish boys, were arrested yesterday, on complaint of Mrs. Clara Elm, charged with assaulting her son Charlie during a quarrel. The boys pleaded not guilty, and will tell their story next Monday. The principals live near Twenty-fourth avenue west and Ninth street.

The death of Mrs. Rachel Hoy, 109 1/2 Second alley East, of cancer, was reported at the health office yesterday. She was 49 years of age; interment will be made in Oneota cemetery.