

William Rockling and Max Markowitz, two young boys arrested Tuesday afternoon on the charge of stealing some fruit from the Knudson-Ferguson company, were found guilty in police court yesterday of petty larceny, and sentenced to the state training school at Red Wing. A parole for one year was granted, however, pending good behavior.

Okling Hines was arrested by Officers