

PRETTY JEWISH WEDDING.

Nearly 400 Friends Witness Polinsky-Rubloff Nuptials at Armory.

The Armory was the scene of a very pleasant gathering last night, which was attended by nearly 400 invited friends, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Marion L. Polinsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Polinsky, 1124 East Sixth street, to Mr. Sol Rubloff, of Virginia. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Helpener, of the Chevra Kadisha congregation. The bridal couple entered the hall from an ante room to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march by La Brosse's orchestra, and after the exchange of nuptial vows left to the triumphant strains of the Lohengrin chorus by the orchestra. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sadie Polinsky, and the groom by his friend, George Mesberg, of Eveleth. Fifty telegrams of congratulation were received by the happy couple during the evening. The gifts received, combined utility and intrinsic value and were unusually plentiful. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Rubloff will make their home in Virginia, where the groom is a successful jeweler.
