notable one. The honor of laying the cornerstone has been given to Mrs. Amelia Cook, a lady 81 years of age, and she will be assisted by her son, I. Abrahamson, her grandson, W. M. Abrahamson and her great grand children, the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Abrahamson.

The Synagogue is being erected by the orthodox Jews of Duluth, and the congregation contains many pioneer residents. It is, in fact, a pioneer religious organization, for it has been in existence here for more than 18 years. Mayor Hugo has been invited to be present and address the gathering. Invitations have also been sent to the various pastors of other churches. The Adas Israel and Chivra Ka-been arranged as a part of the exercises at the laying of the cornerstone. The new synagogue will be a credit to the modern houses of worship in Duluth.
