

LAKE BREEZES.

During this evening street cars will leave Third avenue West for Glen Avon every half hour on the Woodland line.

North Land Printery, Torrey bldg.

Volland's Hat Factory, 14 1st Ave. E.

Try Weiss Beer. You will like it.

Kelly's hat hospital for sick hats.

Tibbetts, undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St.

Paine's Perfect Pipe.—The best pipe in the world. Schiller Cigar Co.

A decided success. Primus creamery butter, manufactured by Bridgeman & Russell.

Division No. 1 of the A. O. H. will picnic at Oatka beach on August 6.

Walter O. Flodin, of this city, has been granted a certificate to practice pharmacy by the state examining board.

The regular thimble bee of the Woman's Aid society of the First Methodist church will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the church parlors.

The Y. M. C. A. gave an excursion last night on the Argo. There was a large attendance. The mandolin club played a delightful program.

Dorothy, the infant daughter of C. W. Ericson, broke her right arm at Solon Springs, Wis., where the family was camping. They have returned home.

The members of the board of trade who occupy the trading floor do not like the stench that comes in through the windows from the alley. It comes from a group of houses adjoining, and a complaint has been made to the health department.

The Hebrew Congregation will give an excursion on the Steamer Bloomer Girl, Tuesday evening, July 30, for the benefit of the building fund. Dancing, and refreshments will be served. Music furnished by the K. P. band.

The Sunday school of the Second Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, will hold its annual picnic on August 31, at Fond du Lac.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. James Magee, 235 Fifth avenue West; Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Goldes, 620½ West Third street. Girls to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kemerer, 718 Fourth avenue East; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Currier, 709½ East Fourth street; Mr. and Mrs. William Haley, 219 Nineteenth avenue East.

John Walling, a laborer employed in installing new water pipes at Third avenue west and Superior street, was overcome by gas about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. He was digging in a deep hole at the time, and it was with some difficulty that he was brought to the surface. He revived shortly.

We speak from experience. The fishermen are getting more bites of late than usual. They buy their tackle from Northern Hardware company.

Thin people enjoy drinking Weiss beer.

Mrs. Gus Skoberg, the woman who was shot in the breast Sunday with a .32 calibre revolver, was doing nicely yesterday. She appears to be suffering no ill effects from the bullet, and if her condition continues to improve the leaden pellet will be allowed to remain where it is.

Mrs. Sophia Bloedel, who was injured Monday night when a street car crashed into a carriage in which she was driving, was considerably better yesterday. Complications may set in, although it is expected she will recover.

The funeral of Mrs. Dorthe Tvedt, who died Sunday evening, will take place this afternoon from the Zion Lutheran church, corner of Third street and Twenty-fifth avenue West, at 2 o'clock. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. Hjortholm. Interment will be at the Park Hill cemetery, Woodland.

Port Collector L. M. Wilcutts; Charles Crain, special agent of the treasury department, and M. D. Purdy, assistant United States district attorney, have returned from a trip down the north shore. They went down on the Argo and returned on the Monarch.

Lizzie Buckley, who, while intoxicated Sunday night, attempted to strangle herself with a sheet, was arrested again last night on the charge of drunkenness. Monday she was found guilty of the same offense in police court, but was not sentenced upon a promise to swear off and go to work.

John Finn, of Duluth, has sold his mare, "Beachwood," to Dr. Harwood, of Eveleth. The price paid, according to report, was $500.

Mrs. Mary Anderson, mother of Jay Anderson, of this city, was one of the victims of the intense heat in the East. She died at Saratoga, N. Y., several days ago, having gone there from her home in New Haven in search of health. She was 89 years of age.

The Duluth hotels were taxed to their capacity last night. The St. Louis could accommodate none of the incoming passengers on the Miami at 10 o'clock. The house was filled at 8. The Spalding was likewise crowded, but could make room for the late arrivals.

Henry W. Oliver, of Pittsburg, will sail today for Europe. The News Tribune is informed upon high authority that he is not promoting the Union Steel company, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary.

Dr. W. C. Dalrymple, of Ogden, Utah, a nephew of Dr. W. F. Gould, of West Superior, went east on the Miami last night.