

PERSONALS.

J. J. Cox, of Hibbing, was at the St. Louis.

F. W. Mills and wife, of Ely, are at the Spalding.

Mrs. B. O'Rourke, of Hibbing, is at the St. Louis.

F. T. Brownell, an Ely lawyer, was in the city yesterday.

Representative J. C. Pope of Mora is a guest at the St. Louis.

George McKinney, of Hibbing, was a guest at the Spalding yesterday.

A. Goldschmidt, of Paris, France, registered at the Spalding yesterday.

Clifford V. Wilkinson and W. Clark Calhoun leave today for a visit at the Pan-American.

Harry Dennis, formerly a resident of this city, but who now lives in Toledo, is here on a visit.

I. Zien, of Hampton, Iowa, head salesman for J. D. Zien & Co., of this city, is a guest at the Spalding.

John McLeod and E. Andrews of Eveleth were celebrating the nation's birthday with the Duluthians yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goodman, of 1315 East Superior street are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott of Waseca, Minn.

Richard Whiteside, a well known logger, came down from "mille 63" yesterday to see the boys and help them celebrate.

M. McGuffin, drum major of the Third regiment band, who is stationed at Ft. Snelling, was at the St. Louis yesterday.

S. L. Hemingway, lately a business man at Waseca, is at the St. Louis. He has engaged to travel for J. D. Zien & Co.

Walter L. Hudson, came down from Hibbing yesterday to spend the Fourth with his parents. He will leave next week for the West.

Professor D. E. Fraas, of Stuttgart, Germany, is at the St. Louis. He will take the Miami for the trip down the lakes Saturday morning.

Colonel John Pengilly came down from Ely yesterday with the banner excursion to the celebration. In the parade he marched at the head of the Ely band.

W. H. Haskins, who has charge of advance car No. 1 for Ringling Bros', circus, is at the St. Louis. The car will be here this morning with a gang of 18 expert bill posters.

B. L. Ward, the fire works expert, is stopping at the St. Louis. He was sent up to take charge of the pyrotechnical exhibition which was postponed until tonight because of last evening's moisture.

R. H. Flaherty, who has charge of iron explorations in the Port Arthur district for prominent eastern interests, passed through Duluth yesterday morning on his way home. He took the Bon Ami for Port Arthur.

M. D. Wilson, a prominent Minneapolis horseman, brought a very speedy animal up for the races yesterday. He did not feel able to wait until Saturday, the day to which the speed contests were adjourned, so he took his animal back last night.