

HAS TROUBLE NOW

CHAS. KNUTSON TRIES TO PAWN PROPERTY AND IS ARRESTED.

Two Brothers, Henry and George Marshall Fined For Fighting— Another Blind Pig Case.

George Dietrich, the well known West Superior attorney, has a pair of valuable opera glasses that were evidently made to be stolen. Last spring they were spirited away from his office one day by some unknown thief, and nothing was heard of them until yesterday, when Charley Knutson, of Duluth, was arrested for trying to pawn them in West Superior. At the station, however, it developed that Charley was not the original thief, but had taken the glasses from J. Polinsky, a Duluth pawnbroker, a few days ago. He said that he had had a difference with Polinsky over a deal in which he thought the latter gave him the worst of it, and to retaliate he stole the opera glasses. Then, in order to raise money on them, he went over to Superior, and was caught in the pawnshop by Detective Shong, who recognized the glasses.

In order to satisfy himself as to the truth of Knutson's story, the officer made a trip to Duluth, and called on Polinsky. The latter identified the glasses as a pair that he had purchased from a stranger in the spring, about the time they were taken from Attorney Dietrich.

Henry and George Marshall, the two brothers arrested Sunday on complaint of Frank and Mary Marshall, a brother and stepmother, charged with assault, were found guilty in police court yesterday, and sentenced to pay fines of $10 and costs. The trouble occurred at the Marshall house, Lake avenue and Seventh street, over Mrs. Marshall's son, Louis Bratz, and resulted in a free-for-all. Prior to the trial yesterday, however, two women witnesses on opposing sides, Bertha Bratz and Rosa Sabousky, became engaged in an argument about the case, with the result that Bertha pulled Rosa's hair and endeavored to mar the symmetry of her features. The women were separated before any serious damage was done, but Miss Sabousky considered that the offense should receive official recognition, and she swore out a warrant charging the Bratz girl with assault. Conviction was easy, and she was fined $3.50 and costs.

Guy Brackline, another member of the Chisholm blind pig colony, was arraigned in court yesterday, and pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license. A fine of $25 and costs was imposed and paid.

A. J. Salter, the saloonkeeper at 22 West Superior street, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Alex Stewart, charged with assault. Stewart, it is said, was not behaving himself to suit Salter, and the latter put him out of his saloon. The hearing will take place this morning at ten o'clock.

M. Carlson, the woodsman, living north of Two Harbors, who was arrested Monday, charged with violating the game laws by killing a deer out of season, was found guilty yesterday, and fined $50 and costs.

Salim Saloom, an Assyrian, was arrested on information furnished by Saddle Saloom, charging him with using profane and indecent language. His hearing was set for Aug. 23, at two o'clock.

Henry Morton, a Mountain Iron railroad man, was arrested shortly after his arrival in the city yesterday, by Detective Troyer, on authority of a telegram from there, charging him with jumping a $56 board bill. The telegram said that Morton would reach the city on the morning Iron Range train, but when that arrived it was learned that he had jumped off at Lakeside instead of coming in to the depot. Shortly afterwards the fellow was arrested between First and Second avenues east, just after disembarking at that point to take a transfer car. A deputy sheriff will arrive for Morton this morning.

Embezzler Returned to Authorities at Juarez to Be Tried there.

EL PASO, Texas, Aug., 14.—John Krug, an American ordered surrendered to Mexico, to answer the charge of embezzling $100,000 from Wells-Fargo at Escalon, Mexico, has been delivered to the Mexican officers at Juarez.

The Mexican officials met the U. S. marshal at the center of the Rio Grande bridge, where they signed a receipt for the prisoner. He was taken to Jimenez and will be tried there. The extradition proceedings were the hardest fought on record since the new treaty was signed.
