

WEST DULUTH

Miss Anna Spellman and Joseph Connelly were united in marriage last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the St. James Catholic church, Father D. W. Lynch officiating. The bride was attended by Miss May Connelly, a sister of the groom, while Mr. Connelly was attended by Arthur Harto.

Immediately following the wedding service the young couple, were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Connelly, 114 North Sixty-third avenue west, after which the wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Connelly left that evening for St. Paul, to visit relatives the next two weeks, after which they will return to Two Harbors, where Mr. Connelly is employed.

Mr. Connelly is a well known young man in West Duluth and very popular among his friends, having lived with his parents in West Duluth the past 18 years. Mrs. Connelly resided in Superior and is very popular there.

William Jannell and Miss Minnie Johnson were united in marriage Tuesday morning at the St. James Catholic church, Rev. Father Lynch officiating.

Mr. Jannell was formerly of Marinette, Wis., but has lived in West Duluth for some time and is a salesman for C. J. Johnson. Mrs. Jannell is from Marinette, Wis. They will make their future home in West Duluth.

Rev. Fred Bloom, the new pastor for the Swedish Mission church on Fifty-ninth avenue west and Green street, was tendered a delightful reception by the members and friends of his congregation last Thursday evening in the church parlors. An excellent musical program was prepared for the occasion and addresses were delivered from pastors of the various Swedish churches, among whom were Rev. Osterholm of Superior and Rev. Nelson of Duluth, after which refreshments were served.

Miss Laura Govett was hostess Thursday at her home, 111 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, when she entertained a number of her friends. Miss Govett will leave next week for her school, to teach the next nine months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Meyers, 514 North Fifty-eighth avenue west held a family reunion at their home Wednesday evening. Among those entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers and daughters of Chippewa Falls, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers of Superior and Mrs. Manners of Milwaukee.

Misses Edith and Ada Bell will leave Tuesday morning for Detroit, Mich., after visiting the past two weeks with friends in West Duluth.

A large number of young people of the Westminster Presbyterian church had an enjoyable evening Wednesday at Lowne's camp at Ironton. A suitable lunch was prepared for the occasion.

A large number of friends pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Larns Goodmanson at their home, Sixty-fifth avenue west and Warden street, the affair being in the nature of a farewell, as the Goodmanson family expect to leave in the near future for Buccatoona, Wis., to make that place their future home. The evening was passed in games and informal music was rendered, after which refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid society of the West Duluth Baptist church held its weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. J. Ross. The afternoon was profitably spent discussing plans for the future work and in sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lyman entertained a number of their friends at their home, 429 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, the occasion being in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Eugene Cook of Richmond Center, Wis. The evening was pleasantly passed in games and music, after which refreshments were served.

The ladies of the Congregational church held a missionary tea at the home of Mrs. C. C. Salter, Fifty-fifth avenue west and Ellnor street.

The young ladies of the Swedish Mission church held their regular sewing circle meeting at the home of Mrs. Western, 211 West Fourth street.

Mrs. J. Holm, 5219 Wadena street entertained a number of her friends last Wednesday evening at her home, the occasion being in honor of her sister, Miss Ethel Bennett of Oscoda, Mich.

Mrs. H. H. Haskins and daughter, Ethel of Perth, N. D., left Wednesday for their home after visiting a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Terry in West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bergner left Thursday for a week's visit at Deer Lodge, Minn.

Miss Katherine Noves of Butte, Mont., is in West Duluth for a few days visiting with friends.

Charles Graves left Wednesday for Fargo on a short business trip.

A Swanson and family returned Tuesday from Fond du Lac, where they have been camping the past few weeks.

Frank Ashley, 320 North Sixtieth avenue west left Saturday evening for Minneapolis to attend the state fair.

Mrs. Lane of Fergus Falls is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Jones, North Fifty-eighth avenue and Cody street for a few weeks.

Miss Mabel Wallace returned Friday to her home, 320 North Sixtieth avenue west after spending a two weeks' vacation in Minneapolis with friends.

Sam Abramson left Wednesday evening for Minneapolis to attend the wedding of his uncle Mose Marks.

Mrs. W. H. Merriam and daughters, Fern and Mabel of Butte, Mont., are visiting at the home of Mrs. E. D. Abbott, 5624 Grant avenue.

Miss Roxv Perkins of St. Paul is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Olson, 329 Fifty-eighth avenue.

Mrs. H. J. Kilburn of Sixty-first avenue west left Saturday for Minneapolis to visit a few days with friends.

Rev. J. J. Ross and wife of London, Ont., are expected here Tuesday to visit their sister, Mrs. R. J. Ross, 325 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

Miss Martha Peterson and Mrs. H. E. Anderson of Seattle, Wash., are in West Duluth visiting at the home of Mrs. D. R. Lund of Sixty-first avenue west and Polk street.

Miss Mable Dawson and her two brothers Royal and Donald returned Thursday to their home in West Duluth after visiting the past few months in Cheboygan, Minn., with relatives.

Ray Kindy has returned from his two weeks' vacation at Minneapolis.

Peter Jepsen and Emil Brooderick of Sandstone are in West Duluth visiting with friends for a few days.

Miss Mary Bergen, 305 South Fifty-eighth avenue west, returned Friday from the Twin Cities where she has been visiting with friends.

Mrs. P. Nelson of Ottawa, Ontario, returned Wednesday to her home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Burns, 514 Fifty-eighth avenue west.

Miss Alma Brotherton returned Wednesday from Minneapolis after visiting a few days with friends.

Miss Olivia Anderson and Mrs. C. Johnson of Tacoma, Wash., are in West Duluth visiting at the home of Mrs. G. Bergen, 305 South Fifty-eighth avenue west.

Mrs. Grace McGouch returned Thursday to her home in Eau Claire, Wis., after visiting a few weeks with West Duluth friends.

Miss Rose Murphy returned Wednesday to her home in Stillwater after a visit with friends in West Duluth.

Miss Anna Cummings of Ottawa, Ont., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Briggs, 5523 Grand avenue.

Clarence Olafson, 3724 Huntington street, left Friday for Dickinson, N. D., to spend a two weeks' vacation.

L. O. Huntley, 604 North Fifty-sixth avenue west, left Thursday for Hancock, Mich., on a short business trip.

Mrs. J. M. Easton and daughter returned to their home in Muskegon, Mich., Saturday after visiting with friends in West Duluth.

Mrs. Henry Shank of Hot Springs, Ark., arrived Friday to visit her brother George Whitney, manager of the Postal Telegraph office at West Duluth.

R. F. Johnson left Friday for Minneapolis to accept a position with a large wholesale firm.

Carl Weaver of St. Paul is in West Duluth for a few weeks to visit with relatives.

Peter Jepsen and Emil Brooderick of Sandstone are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norman, 22 North Sixty-fifth avenue west.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zauft and family, Fifty-eighth avenue west and Wadena street, returned Wednesday from Baraboo, after several weeks' visit with relatives.

Henry Young and Miss Ethel Young left Friday for White Bear, Minn., where they will visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Franklin G. Burger of Milwaukee left Friday for her home after visiting a few days at the home of her brother, Julius N. Lindgren, Fifty-eighth avenue west.

George Little of Fifty-sixth avenue west left Saturday for Barnum on a short business trip.

Lieut. A. J. Briggs and John Moran are at Pike Lake on a short business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Larus Goodmanson will leave next week for Buccatoona, Wis., to make that place their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sorcomb of Brainerd are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Miller of North Sixty-fourth avenue west.

Miss Ada Bell of Detroit, Mich., is the guest of Miss Edna Ross for a few days.

Miss Gladys Stoller and sister Dorothy are in St. Paul for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

Miss Gladys Nobles of Aberdeen, N. D., returned to her home after a visit of a few days in West Duluth.

Miss Clara Johnson, 6324 Warden street, left last week to resume her duties as teacher at one of the Mountain Iron schools for the next ten months.

Herman Hollander of Oakland, Cal., is in West Duluth visiting his sister, Mrs. William Burdick, 330 North Central avenue.

Mrs. Peter Gilluson and Mrs. Carlson returned Friday to their home in West Duluth after a week's visit at Mahtowa with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McKinley and family will leave Tuesday morning for Portland, Oregon, to locate there.

Rev. Arthur Hoag will leave Monday morning for Minneapolis to attend the State Fair next week.

WEST DULUTH

Continued from Page 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Siren and family of Park Point have moved to 418 North Fifty-seventh avenue.

C. T. Faucett, 332 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, returned Thursday from a business tour through North and South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warner, 305 North Fifty-sixth avenue west, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. M. Sargent of St. Croix Falls, Minn.

Mrs. C. O. Applehagen and Miss Effie Mintle, 5810 Ellnor street, have gone to Bovey to spend a few days with relatives.

C. B. Dalmare who has been visiting friends and relatives in West Duluth returned Friday to his home in Mountain Iron.

William Wargstrom left Wednesday for Detroit, Mich., to accept a position as bookkeeper.

Frank Watson and son returned Friday from Detroit, Mich., where they have been the last few days visiting with friends.

P. P. Garvem of Menomonie, Wis., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wollan, 101 North Fifty-eighth avenue west.

Miss Freda Johnson who has been visiting with friends in West Duluth returned Wednesday to her home in Hibbing.

P. K. Sjoberg of Rochester, Minn., was a business visitor in West Duluth Thursday.

H. J. Hamilton of Blue Earth is in West Duluth, visiting with relatives.

A beautiful wedding of much interest to many of the young people of West Duluth took place at 6 o'clock last Thursday evening in St. Paul, when Mr. Mose Marks of Minneapolis formerly of West Duluth and Miss Sadie Wiseman were married. A reception followed the ceremony. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and palms. The bridesmaids were all gowned in dainty pink gowns and carried shower bouquets of sweet peas. Mrs. M. B. Abrahamson of Duluth, was matron of honor and wore a beautiful pink and white dress. Miss Mary Marks of Minneapolis, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. The bride wore a white satin princess with a bertha of real duchess lace, with a full veil and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses. A reception followed the wedding service in the hall of ceremonies, after which the guests were ushered in the two adjoining dining halls where a well appointed wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Marks left on the evening train on a short wedding trip. They will be in West Duluth for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Abrahamson, N. Fifty-seventh avenue west and Cody street. They will be at home in St. Paul after October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McKinley of North Fifty-fourth avenue west and Main street, were very agreeably surprised by a large number of their friends Saturday evening. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and family will leave Tuesday morning for Portland, Ore., to make that place their future home. The evening was pleasantly passed with several interesting games, after which refreshments were served.

C. Olinson left last week for St. Paul to attend the Photographers' convention.

Miss Minnie Terreau who has been visiting her brother, left last week for her home at Des Moines, Iowa.

Frank R. Lewis of St. Paul is in West Duluth visiting with friends and relatives for a few days.

Miss Grace Merrill of Marquette, Mich., is in West Duluth for a week visiting with friends.

Miss Maud Simpson returned last week from Minneapolis where she has been the past two weeks visiting with friends.

Fred Arbor returned last week from Saginaw, Mich., where he has been for some time visiting.