

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey Bldg.

Good for bad stomachs, not bad for good stomachs—Herba Cura.

John G. Woolley, the world-famous lecturer, at the Armory, January 11th. Parlor Theater—Crowded houses nightly.

Rene Hugo, son of Mayor Hugo, is at the St. Luke's hospital, where he was operated upon a couple of days ago for appendicitis. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Commencing tonight there will be music by Third Regiment band at the East End rink Wednesday and Saturday evenings, when the weather will permit.

Kelly's Dye Works for sick clothes.

Girls have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shapira 13 West Third street; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nelson, 517 West Seventh street; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Anderson, 2115 West Third street; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tompkins, 220 West Fourth street; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Olson, 3822 Magellan street; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Morrison, Oneota street; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cashin, 623 Fifty-sixth avenue West; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reid, 227 Sixty-fourth avenue West; Mr. and Mrs. Mose LeFaivre 5816 Main street, and boys to Mr. and Mrs. Ellick Kohn, 1523 West Michigan street; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zeidel, 422 St. Croix avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Levander, 1716 New street; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nelson, 706 East Third street; Mr. and Mrs. Aschilles Roy, 2611 Railroad street; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bovine, of Gosnold street; Mr. and Mrs. Casper J. Schulte, Sixty-third avenue West and Livingstone street; Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson, 323 Sixty-third avenue; Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson, 4215 Magellan street; Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Rossiter, 527 Sixtieth avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Filiatrault, 12 East Fourth street.

When completely fagged out drink Weiss Beer.

The following were yesterday granted marriage licenses: Gust Olson and Amanda Petersen; Gust Adolph Johnson and Adeline Johnson; Gust Sandberg and May Manning.

The divorce of Lily C. Johnson vs. John O. Johnson was the only case heard in district court yesterday. It was not concluded and will be continued at 9:30 this morning.

There was quite a rush to the county treasurer's office yesterday to pay taxes for the year 1901. After Monday there is an additional ten per cent penalty.

The board of public works yesterday opened bids for the construction of 200 feet of sanitary sewer in Second street West from Twenty-ninth avenue. Frank King bid the lowest, $310.70.

Saeger Stanley, ticket agent at the Omaha passenger depot in this city, has resigned to go to California. His health is poor and he is going to the Pacific coast to make it his future home, in the hope that the climate will be beneficial. Nobody has been appointed in his place as yet, the place being temporarily filled.

J. O. Dalzell, general agent of the Northern Pacific, who has been appointed division freight agent of the road, has returned from St. Paul. He will assume his new duties as soon as T. E. Blanch, of Buffalo, comes on to relieve him of the post of general agent.

The Midnight Test gold and silver mine near Prescott, Ariz., owned by D. T. Adams, A. S. Chase, of Duluth, and P. L. Kimberly of Sharon, Pa., has made a remarkable showing in a smelter run of ore. The first lot ran $189.96 a ton and the second lot $163.18 a ton. It is said that this is one of the richest smelter runs, ton for ton, ever made of Arizona ore.

Miss Mary Brustad, the young Scandinavian woman who told Mayor Hugo on Thursday that she was being persecuted, was yesterday taken to St. Luke's hospital, where she will remain until her examination in probate court, which will take place either today or Monday. The young woman is very nervous and thinks some one is trying to do injury to her.