

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey Bldg.
Parlor theater. Big, jolly vaudeville bill.

Get your tickets for John G. Woolley's lecture at the Y. M. C. A., at Pinto's jewelry store, 2004 West Superior street, and at White Star restaurant, West Duluth.

A regular meeting of the St. Louis County Medical society was held last night at the Spalding. About 15 members were present. A paper on the subject of anesthetics was read by Dr. Clarence Taylor, and a general discussion by the members followed.

Parlor theater, Entire new program tonight.

F. C. Bolln, of Bolln & Wood, logging contractors of Brainerd, was at the St. Louis last night. He says that logging operations are progressing favorably. The company has about 400 men at work, getting out timber for the Brooks-Scanlon company. Mr. Bolln says that men are less restive than they were earlier in the winter.

Parlor theater. Fun, fast and furious.

The need of more snow is beginning to be felt in Duluth and in the woods. Sleighing has disappeared in the streets of the range towns as a result of the mild weather. Teaming operations are being delayed or rendered difficult, as in many roads the conditions are favorable for neither wheeling nor sleighing.

You can build up a home industry by eating "Frimus" creamery butter.

An intoxicated woodsman named Ed Finn fell against an iron railing at the Union depot yesterday and sustained a severe scalp wound. The accident sobered him up very materially. Friends cared for him.

The season being a very warm one, heating stoves have not sold as they would during an ordinary season. We are offering bargains in heaters. Northern Hardware company.

George A. Gray, formerly financial and general manager for I. Freimuth, left yesterday for the east. He will engage in business for himself, probably in some good town of the middle west. Mr. Gray has been with Freimuth for 11 years. He was presented with a gold watch upon his departure, by Mr. Freimuth and the employes of the store, with whom he had been so long associated. He expects to return to Duluth before going away permanently.

Just what you need; Weiss Beer.

George Esh, formerly of Duluth, but who has for the past few years been a resident of Idaho, is in the city. He says that many Duluth men are acquiring mining interests in Idaho, and that it has a great future as a mining district.

Tibbets, undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St.

Girls have been born to Mr. and Mrs. George McGuffie, of St. John's street, Park Point; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mantez, of 2024 West Superior street; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson, of 2606 Courland street, and a boy to Mr. and Mrs. George Ketner, of 2330 West Michigan street.

Kelly's Dye Works for sick clothes.

A woodsman named Emil Dovarokelle was taken to St. Luke's hospital last night suffering from internal injuries as a result of an accident in a camp on the north shore.

G. G. Dickerman has taken out a building permit for the erection of a four-story brick building on the lower side of Michigan street, between Second and Third avenues west, the same to cost $14,000.

The members of the Syrian colony in the West End gathered in municipal court yesterday afternoon to witness the trial of William Abalon, who sues his sister-in-law, Janelly Abalon, for $222, alleged to have been loaned her. Janelly, a short time ago, was divorced from Habbitt Abalon, and the trial took the form of a family affair. Judge Edson took the case under advisement.

John Krzeszewski was yesterday granted a license to wed Agnes Meszki.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Luster, of 1619 East First street.

On account of the death of Mrs. Sophia Lachmund, the pupils of Mrs. E. L. Schmied and Ernest Lachmund are requested to await further instructions.