

SUPERIOR YOUNG WOMEN WHO PLAY BASKETBALL.

In the front row, beginning at the right, are Lela Adams, Grace M. Casey, Edith G. Karon (captain), Belle Scott and May Conley. Standing behind them, beginning at the right, are Judith V. Yeakle (physical instructor at the Normal school), Lillian B. Turnbull, Catharine McHugh and Norma Nimmo.

The ladies' basket ball team of the Superior Normal will return today from their first trip away from the city.

On Friday night they met the Minnesota University, but the latter proved too strong for them. The game was played in the Armory before a large crowd of basket ball enthusiasts. It was hotly contested from start to finish, but was won by the Minnesotans by a score of 14 to 11.

Ever since basket ball has been played at the Normal the girls have taken a great interest in the game. Hitherto, however, all contests have been confined to Normal teams, and the rivalry between some of these has been intense.

Their first game was played one week ago last Saturday in the local gymnasium with the University girls. The Superior girls lost the game, but only after a hard struggle.

Next year the same pltn will be followed by those interested in the sport, and the best ladies' team throughout the Northwest will be played.
