Am in the city at present and will guarantee my work as paper hanger and painter. Prices reasonable. Anyone wishing to have work done by me should leave orders at S. Oberg's store. M. W. KARPO.

A heavy storm which struck Virginia Monday afternoon hit some of our neighboring villages a harder blow. In Duluth considerable damage was done to property and several people were injured by falling glass and flying debris.

The strawberry and ice cream social and "Experience Social" given by the ladies of the M. E. Church at the Opera House block Wednesday evening was a very successful event and the society exchequer was enriched to a pleasing amount.

The opening game of the season at the Virginia ball park on Sunday between the "Has Been's" and the "Will Be's" was witnessed by a good crowd, attesting the fact that Virginians still take interest in the national game. The score showed up 11 to 18 in favor of the latter team.

F. A. Brown is back at the St. Louis after a somewhat extended trip to Oregon. Mr. Brown is interested in a promising mining property in which it is said Capt. M. L. Fay has become or may become associated with him. The Captain was recently out on the coast on a trip of inspection of the property.—News-Tribune.

In the personal injury damage suit of Samuel Thompson against John Runquist for $15,000 for the loss of an eye through a blast while at work near Elba in January, 1900, jury found for the defendant. The accident happened through Thompson striking a stick of dynamite in the ground, evidently put there for a blast and not touched off.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN.—One printer, who for a time worked at various offices on the Vermilion and Mesaba ranges under the name of .. Last seen of him was on Friday last, at which time he was "lining track" on the D. M. & N. between Virginia and Wolf. Any information relative to his whereabouts will be cheerfully received by the next print-shop proprietor on his time-card schedule, who'll be pleased to know he's coming.

Some weeks ago The Ore announced that Senator Hawkins contemplated building a dwelling in the Pillsbury addition, this city, and the statement was at once accepted as evidence of something more interesting to follow, and there has been considerable newspaper speculation as a result. Mr. Hawkins stated to a reporter for The Ore that it is possible he will erect a dwelling, but will go no further, and that in the event he should decide to go beyond that point he will announce the fact and will assemble all his friends in one grand leave taking.—The Mesaba Ore.

Virginia has been flooded with agents the past week, a sure sign of the return of spring.

Miss Myrtle Brown has accepted a position with Milavets Bros. ice cream and confectionery parlors.

The continued dearth of houses for rental purposes in the city would indicate an increasing population.

If you think enough of your dog to want to keep him, you must see that he is properly tagged before June 1st.

The annual work over the deprecations of neighbors' hens in your new garden beds is about to begin. A correspondent suggests a remedy to set a steel trap in the bed, catch the hen and eat her. This practice may be hard on the hen, but it will save a heap of "kussin" that would be put to better use.—Negaunee Herald.

L. W. Everson, former leader of the M. W. A. Band but who has resided at Tomahawk and Rhineland since leaving here, will return to Virginia shortly and again assume his old position with band. Under his efficient leadership the M. W. A. Band made rapid strides and was easily recognized as the best musical organization of the ranges, and his return will be pleasing to local musicians. He will also accept his former position as foreman of The Enterprise.

The Rev. Mr. Peabody, who was recently appointed by the Bishop of Duluth to take charge of the Episcopal church here, conjointly with the Hibbing church, has accepted an unsolicited call to the church at Jackson, Minn. This is the congregation which so earnestly desired to retain Mr. Peabody nine years ago, on the eve of his taking up the important work in the Red River Valley, where he spent seven happy and prosperous years. Mr. Peabody was unable to persuade the Jackson church to give him the sixty days asked for in order to allow the Bishop to secure a pastor for the Hibbing-Virginia field; so that the coming Sunday, May 25th, will be Mr. Peabody's last visit to Virginia.

The Royal Neighbors tendered an enjoyable Basket Social at Hawkins Hall Wednesday evening.

The regular morning service will be held in the M. E. Church as usual at 11 o'clock. Sunday School at 12:10. Junior League at 3 o'clock.

H. E. Fooness erects a substantial addition to his home on Spruce street. When complete he will have one of the noblest residences in the city.

It is the contention of some that "open gambling" is of commercial value to any town where permitted. But we do not believe Virginia can produce a man who will put such ideas into copy for publication above his own signature. If such there are, our columns are open for that purpose.

ALBERT E. BICKFORD, City Recorder.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. United States Land Office, May 14, 1902.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.

He names as witnesses: E. W. Jones, of West Superior, Wis., E. E. Johnson, " " " " O. A. Porter, " " " "

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 25th day of August, 1902.

Wm. E. Oulkin, Register.
