

SUPERIOR BREVITIES.

Two lots on the southwest corner of Ogden avenue and Eighteenth street were yesterday sold by M. M. Lynch to Maria L. Newcomb, who will improve the property by building a handsome residence upon it. The dwelling that is now upon the inner lot will be moved to the alley corner.

Captain and Mrs. Jarvis White, 5240 Cumming avenue, will entertain the members of the G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps at their home next Tuesday evening.

As a result of the selection of Fourteenth street and Tower avenue for the location of the federal building, the old fair building, which will be converted into a curling rink, will not be moved from Broadway and Ogden. None of the contemplated changes in the building will be made until after Labor day, as it will be used for the Labor day ball.

Harry Gordon, of 613 John avenue, was arraigned yesterday afternoon before Acting Judge French on the charge of abusing his family. The case was adjourned until tomorrow, and Gordon was released on bonds.

C. T. Robinson has been selected to represent the local mail carriers at the national convention of mail carriers in Denver. He will leave here on Aug. 30, and will be gone several days to attend the convention.

Ex-Mayor Parker and Judge Hally have been selected as speakers at the A. O. U. W. picnic which will be held next Wednesday at Lincoln park.

Harry E. Spring, assistant ticket agent at the Union station, has accepted the position of assistant agent at the Duluth depot. His place will be taken by Don Cole.

W. E. Younquist, of this city, is now traveling in Sweden, lecturing on phrenology. He expects to secure a number of photographs, which he will use in his lectures in this country.

Judge Haney, chief justice of South Dakota, is in the city, with his wife and daughter, visiting at the home of A. N. Dow, of Central Park.

Mrs. William H. Kelley and Miss Emma Kelley, of St. Paul, have returned to their home, after visiting with Mrs. Heisel, of 1811 Seventeenth street.

A. J. Perrin and wife are visiting at Calumet, Mich.

E. F. McCausland and H. L. Smith are spending Sunday at Deerwood.

Miss Alice Fife, who has been visiting at the home of her mother, 1611 Belknap, has returned to Aberdeen, S. D.

Miss Helen Karon has returned from a visit in Ironwood, Mich.