CEREMONY ONE OF MOST LARGELY
EVER ATTENDED IN DULUTH.

Banquet Follows, With I. Tenonsky
Master of Ceremonies and Julius Abrahamson Toastmaster.

The first wedding to occur at the new synagogue of the Adas Israel congregation took place last evening, when Miss Sarah Shapiro, of Eveleth, and Albert H. Polinsky, of this city were married.

The ceremony was one of the most largely attended ever held in the city, and the church was filled with the most prominent Jewish society set. Decorations of palms and ferns pervaded in beautiful and artistic profusion throughout the edifice.

Signor Valenza's orchestra played during the evening, especially rehearsed music for the occasion.

The bridal party, composed of the bride and groom, the bridesmaids, Misses Sadie and Eva Polinsky, the best man, Samuel Weinberger, and the two flower girls, Misses Mildred Mendal, of Biwabik, and Florence Shapiro, of Eveleth, entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the orchestra. The bride wore a beautiful gown of silk chiffon over white taffeta silk.

Rabbi Eppstein performed the ceremony, assisted by the choir, which chanted the wedding prayers.

After the ceremony, a banquet was held at Odd Fellows' hall, where I Zenansky acted as master of ceremonies. Julius Abrahamson was toastmaster, and Judge W. L. Windom, Mr. Zenansky and several others responded very aptly to the subjects presented.

Many Telegraphic Congratulations.

One hundred and twenty telegrams of congratulation were received from friends all over the country. Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, and Congressman Goldfogel, of New York, were among those who sent their good wishes to the young couple.

After the banquet a dance and reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Polinsky left last evening for a wedding trip to Boston. They will be gone about three months, and will visit all of the principal cities en route.

The bride is a most charming young Eveleth woman, and the groom is a prominent business man of the city.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenburg, the former being an uncle of the bride, who came from Europe to attend the ceremony, Mrs. Mendal and daughter, of Biwabik; Mr. and Mrs. Shiram, of Sparta; Mr. and Mrs. Ruboff, of Eveleth; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McCann, of Chicago; Mrs. Sherbocov, of Ashland; Mrs. Mental, of Iron Belt; L. Polinsky, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. M. Sabel, of Birmingham, Ala.; Miss Lena Marshoek, of Ashland, and Miss Lena Romain, of Ironwood, Mich.
